BUTLER ALUMNI AND CLASS DAY PROGRAM SET

Graduates of Years With 4 and 9 Endings Will Hold Reunions.

Plans for Butler university alumni and class day, to be observed on the Fairview campus tomorrow, have been announced by Miss Sarah T. Sisson, secretary of the alumni association.

Program will include athletic contests between alumni and students, class stunts, dedication of Katherine Merrill Graydon Memorial library, class reunions and alumni supper.

Classes of the years ending in '04 and '09 will hold reunions. Members of the graduating class of 1884 will receive etchings of the tower of Jordan hall.

Students who will participate in class day activities are Miss Mosele Ehnis, Joe Macy, Emsley Johnson Jr., Elbert Gilliom, Frank Reissner and Miss Emma Lou Thornbrough.

James Stewart, president of the graduating class, will present the class gift.

Samuel Offutt, alumni president, will preside at dedicatory services of the library. Professor George Schumacher will present the memorial tablet, which is to be unveiled by Miss Mary Elizabeth Lewis. Dr. James W. Putnam will accept. Mrs. Lola Blount Conner will present the memorial library, containing five thousand English reference volumes collected by Miss Graydon while a member of the Butler faculty. Hilton U. Brown, president of directors, will accept.

The alumni dinner will be held at 6:30, followed by a student revue. Under the direction of Mrs. Freda Robinson, and a business meeting of the association.

Know the Truth About Your EYES!

At the age of 40, the delicate mechanism of the eyes usually begins to lose its flexibility. Continued good vision in later years depends on the care of the eyes now.

The harm that is done your eyes by continued eyestrain can only be overcome by the immediate fitting of the correct glasses. Every day a delay is injurious to your sight! See that the proper glasses are prescribed for you by our Registered Optometrist today!

DILLINGER ROBBED OF $5! POLICE STUNNED: IT'S JOHNNY'S COUSIN

"Dillinger was held up and robbed of $5 last night."

Police aroused themselves with a start last night when the report was posted at police headquarters. Instead of bad man Dillinger, however, it was his cousin, Howard Dillinger, 1966 Winter avenue.

Three men in an automobile stopped Mr. Dillinger and his wife as they were driving on West Tenth street near Indiana avenue.
