WIMBLEDON, England, July 5.—Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal., American champion, today advanced to the final of women's singles in the all-England tennis championships by eliminating Joan Hartigan of Australia, 6-2, 6-2.

Miss Jacobs will meet the winner of today's other semi-final match between Dorothy Round of England, and Mlle. Rene Mathieu of France, in the final, probably Saturday.

Miss Jacobs, America's lone hope of winning either singles crown, triumphed with ease over the Australian girl, who had advanced to the semi-finals at the expense of two seeded stars.

Miss Jacobs and Miss Hartigan opened play on the center court before a near capacity gallery which sweltered under blistering heat.

Seeks Moody's Crown
The Berkeley girl, who is seeking the crown left undefended by Mrs. Helen Williams Moody, played under wraps during the first set. She was content to remain in deep court and merely keep the ball in play until the nervous Australian lass outed or netted.

She took a three-love lead with the loss of but five points.

Miss Hartigan opened the second set briskly, breaking her opponent's service at love.

Then Miss Jacobs turned on the power, and playing with precision, she clicked off four games in a row. She broke down the Australian's backhand with deep corner shots. After dropping the sixth game, Miss Jacobs came to the net for the first time, winning the seventh with two untouchable volleys. She then broke service to end the dull and uninteresting match.

BIG FOUR ROUTE

CHAMPION PAR

Johnny McGuire has his eye on one of those five places that will constitute the Indianapolis Public Links team in the national tournament at Pittsburgh, Pa., July 30 to Aug. 4. John has been a regular member the last several years and served as captain. His interest in the game and interest in the players is of the highest class. It is worthy of note that a player of his experience is trying for a 1934 team berth.

Wednesday being Fourth of July, John found time to play golf. He sauntered out east to Pleasant Run links where the final eighteen holes of the fifty-four-hole Indianapolis qualification test will be played next Sunday. With eighteen holes remaining to be played, John is in fourth place, five strokes behind the leader, Walter Chapman, who has 144. Dave Mitchell and Vaughan King are in between with 145 and 146 strokes, respectively.

So, out to Irvington went John, and what he did to that course was plenty. He bettered course par five strokes, scoring a 68. He slipped over par one stroke on the second hole, but came back with two birdies and five pars on the next seven holes to reach the turn in 35, one under par.

GOING on a rampage against par again on the last nine, McGuire bettered perfect figures by four strokes to score a 33 against par 37. He birdied the tenth hole, scored an eagle on the twelfth, slipped over par one stroke on No. 15 and then scored his second eagle of the nine holes on No. 18. All the other holes were played in par. All McGuire had to say was that he was "just playing well" and wished the 68 could have been scored next Sunday, when he will need it.

McGuire's card against par follows:
Par Out 4 4 5 4 3 3 4 4—36
McGuire 4 3 4 4 3 3 4—35
Par In 4 2 3 3 4 4 4 3—37
McGuire 3 3 3 3 3 4 4 3—35—68

More than thirty members of the Pleasant Run Men's Club engaged in a flag tournament yesterday. Al Dowd, just a youngster—in fact the youngest member of the club—carried off first honors by reaching the twentieth cup, where he tied his flag onto the pin. Al had the benefit of a fifteen-stroke handicap.

Clark Esple, who plays with a four-stroke handicap, scored a 70 on the first eighteen holes and his allotment of 77 for the flag tournament took him to the twentieth round, just short of the cup. George Jordan captured third place, just reaching the twentieth green.

A $65 golf bag that was raffled off went to Harry Horten.

A galaxy of events was on the program at Hillcrest over the holiday stretch. In one of the most interesting, Frank T. Lewis and his son Dave Lewis captured the father and son tournament by five strokes, besting T. H. David and son John, 135 to 140.

The flag tournament at Hillcrest was really a thrilling event. Three players finished within a few yards of each other and one scant yard separated the first and second place winners.

C. N. Carter took first place, getting 325 yards down the twentieth fairway with the strokes allotted him. R. H. Mohr was second, 324 yards down the twentieth fairway, and Mike Warren, third, was 130 yards down the same stretch.

A flock of ties cropped out in the ball sweepstakes event, but none was near enough to the Bill Higby for first place. Bill had a gross 86 with a 25 stroke handicap for a net 61, which was eight strokes better than W. H. Roberts, who took second place with 83-14, net 69.

Five players tied for fifth prize with net scores of 71 each. Dr. J. V. Timons had 81-10-71; A. C. Crum, 91-20-71; R. J. Kemper, 83-12-71; C. V. Spickelmier, 98-27-71, and H. C. Stude, 89-18-71.

Four players tied for thirteenth prize with net 78. They were C. F. Campbell, 99-27-72; J. E. Campbell, 95-23-72; F. C. Hughes, 80-8-72; J. E. Campbell, 95-23-72; F. C. Hughes, 80-8-72 and H. W. Dawson, 90-18-72.

Three tied for the last prize. They were E. M. Hunker, 94-20-74; E. W. Krutinger, 85-11-74 and C. J. Taylor, 93-19-74.

Roy Smith took a trip around the course with the boys and had four birdies on the first seven holes. Chick Taylor and Dr. Hughes vied for the vitamin "D" honors, playing a la wrestler style and boy how they did moan at those birdies.

Punny part about it, they have Roy figured pretty well. Day before yesterday the Hillcrest pro had to do a 69 to win a quarter.

Mrs. Carl H. Maskey, president of the Indiana Women's Golf Association, has sounded a warning to women golfers over the state to get in their entries for the thirtieth annual state championship, to be played next week over South Bend Country Club links.

It is the wish of the state officers to have players together in the qualification test who play nearly the same game. Also the association has a system of starting players with the lowest handicaps first. Thus, in cases of ties, except for the sixteenth position in each flight, the first players to start are given preference because they are lower handicap shooters.

The state officers plan to make the pairings Friday night for release in Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning papers. Get your entry and club handicap to Mrs. K. T. Knobe, South Bend Country Club, at once.

Caddies at all the local clubs are talking about the state caddy championship at Tri-County Country Club links in Waldron next Monday.

Manager Padgett of the Tri-County Country Club, which is located thirty miles southeast of Indianapolis on road No. 29 just east of Shelbyville, has arranged for trophies to go to the four-man caddy team which has the lowest total score. He also has a cup for the individual with the lowest score. The event will be thirty-six holes, eighteen holes in the morning and the same number in the afternoon. Entry fee will be $1 per man. If the caddies who play desire services of caddies they may bring their own. Many teams can enter from any
