The program is under auspices of the summer school college of religion at Butler university and the Indiana Christian Missionary Association.

Dr. James A. Crain, secretary of the board of temperance and social welfare of the Disciples of Christ, was to take the affirmative, attempting to show that repeal had proved disastrous and demoralizing, while Leo M. Rappaport, attorney, was to take the negative.

SURGEON SAVES GIRL WITH KITCHEN KNIFE

Makes Quick Incision in Throat to Restore Breathing.

CHICAGO, July 5.—An 8-year-old girl who had stopped breathing is alive today, thanks to a kitchen knife and a quick-thinking surgeon.

Berk had suffered from a throat infection. Yesterday the throat began swelling suddenly and her father, Jack Berk, called Dr. A. Matheson.

"It was a matter of life and death," Dr. Matheson said today. "I made an incision in the throat with a kitchen knife which I had quickly sterilized and inserted a rubber tube through which she could be given air."
