

—Playground News— SCHEDULE FOR BOYS' LEAGUE TEAMS READY

22 Baseball Groups to Take Part in This Year's Race.

BY WILLIAM H. M'GAUGHEY

Amid the din of firecrackers popping off throughout the city today, "poppings off" of another nature could be heard.

Loud talk about the 1934 boys' playground champion was exploding like a barrel-full of eight-inches. After keeping our ear to the ground for some time, we attempted to determine the next champion and found that there probably will be twenty-two of them.

Anyway, all the teams in the city are very much in the race and will fight it out for the remainder of the season.

Here's the season's baseball schedule in the boys' leagues as arranged by Bob Nipper, the arbiter of various and sundry sandlot scraps. (The teams lined up here play three times. The date of the games are given after the names of the squads.)

Attendance Mark Falls
Firecrackers are not the only things booming this week. Because of the hot weather—or despite it—attendance figures at the playgrounds have soared to a new high.

So far, 43,340 boys and girls have attended the playgrounds. This time last year, only 26,922 had deserted back yard for the parks and public playlots.

Brookside park was the leader in attendance figures at this time a year ago, but this year Brookside has leaped ahead of all city playgrounds with 3,848 individual attendance so far.

FIND STATE GRAVE OF COLONIAL WAR HERO
City Descendant Seeks Marker From Patriotic Society.

Recent work of genealogists has resulted in the location of the grave of John Snoddy, Revolutionary war soldier, who fought with George Washington.

The work was done at the instigation of Mrs. Pauline Crow, 1959 Broadway, last direct descendant of John Snoddy.

The grave, with that of Mr. Snoddy's wife and a small child, is in a small cemetery in Owen county, near Carpp. Mrs. Crow is eager that some patriotic society give the grave an appropriate marker.

FORTUNE FLAYS HIGH TAX RATE

One-Fifth of U. S. Income Goes to Taxes, City Man Claims.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, July 4.—One-fifth of the national income will be taken by local, state and national governments in taxation this year, it was charged today in a report to the United States Chamber of Commerce by William Fortune, Indianapolis capitalist.

"Total taxes in 1934—federal, state and local—will be approximately $9,000,000,000," said Mr. Fortune, a member of the chamber's state and local taxation committee. "If our national income, which was estimated at $39,800,000,000 for 1933, should reach $45,000,000,000 this year taxes will take 20 per cent. In most years of the decade prior to the depression, taxes took no more than 10 to 11 per cent of the national income." "Even with $9,000,000,000, budgets will not be balanced and debts will be increased by the governmental units," Mr. Fortune declared.

"We need a policy of realism with respect to curtailment of governmental expenditures, as well as with respect to the proportion of the national income which may be taken for governmental purposes," he concluded.

Of Great Britain's 56,000,000 acres of land, 30,000,000 are under cultivation or used generally for farming purposes.
