

WOMAN'S DEATH IS PROBED BY HOMICIDE SQUAD

Victim Drops Dead in Front of Hotel: Identity Not Yet Established.

Homicide squad investigators are today probing the mysterious death early today of a woman believed to be Miss Olga Buetner, St. Louis, Mo. The woman collapsed yesterday on the pavement in front of the Antlers hotel.

City hospital attaches attributed the death to "heat exhaustion," but Coroner William E. Arbuckle, suspicious of the peculiar circumstances surrounding the death, ordered an investigation.

The woman, now listed at the city morgue as "Mary Doe," alighted from a car containing two other women in front of the hotel yesterday afternoon. A bellboy, Victor McKinney, 19, of 472 North State street, took her baggage.

Hears Woman Fall

The two women called to her. "Now, we'll see what kind of a woman you are!" Young McKinney heard the woman fall to the pavement as the car drove away.

Persons passing by picked her up and took her inside the hotel to await the arrival of the city hospital ambulance. She never regained consciousness.

Police are holding her three suit cases, a spring coat, two pairs of spectacles and a handbag containing $19 and a $5 check made out to John Willis.

Bible Among Possessions

The woman is described as being about 40 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, 110 pounds in weight with brown hair streaked with gray. She wore a pair of shoes bought in St. Louis, Mo.

Among her possessions police found a Bible with the verse "Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it," penned on the flyleaf. The Bible had been the gift of Helen Gould Shepard to Olga Buetner.

A letter addressed to Miss Buetner from the Bible Truth depot, St. Louis, Mo., describing the bearer as a "very godly sister," was also discovered among the effects.

C. M. T. CAMP CHIEF INSPECTS FORT UNIT

Lieutenant-Colonel John E. Mort of Ft. Hayes Is Visitor.

Lieutenant-Colonel John E. Mort, officer in charge of citizens military training camp affairs in the Fifth Corps area, made a routine inspection of Ft. Benjamin Harrison camp activities yesterday morning, returning to Ft. Hayes, Columbus, after luncheon.

Dr. H. L. Smith, Indiana university education school dean, addressed the cadets this morning. The talk supplemented the citizenship course conducted by Major Ralph E. Jones.

Pistol practice will be completed today. The rifle and machine gun course was finished yesterday.

TIRE THEFT SUSPECT NABBED BY SOLDIER

Caught Youth in Act, Fort Sergeant Tells Police.

No one is going to steal tires from a fellow officer's car if Sergeant H. J. Dove of the 151st Field Artillery, Indiana National Guard, can help it.

Seeing a Negro removing the spare tire from an auto belonging to an officer's car parked near the National Guard Armory yesterday, Sergeant Dove gave chase and captured a youth at Senate avenue and St. Clair street.

The alleged thief, who later was charged with petit larceny and vagrancy at police headquarters, gave his name as John Sherrill Wiggins, 21, of 2310 Raiston avenue.

NYE BROADENS SPLIT IN RANKS OF REPUBLICANS

Takes Issue on G. O. P.
View Roosevelt Is Too Liberal.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Fresh evidence of the continued gulf between the regular and progressive wings of the Republican party was afforded today by Senators Daniel O. Hastings of Delaware and Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota.

Senator Hastings, co-chairman of the Republican senatorial-congressional campaign committee, attacked the Roosevelt program as "revolutionary."

"It must be evident by this time that it is dangerous," he said.

"Likewise it must be evident a check must be placed on it. A free America is once more needed."

Senator Nye attacked the NRA but his complaint against President Roosevelt was that he had not been "liberal enough."

"However," he said, speaking of the senate progressive bloc, "the mere fact that he hasn't done all we hoped for hasn't driven any of us back into the Hoover camp."

Meantime, he declared the "elephant hasn't learned a thing."

"The Republicans," Mr. Nye said, "will nominate Mills, Reed or Wadsworth in 1936. An ultra-conservative platform, opposing extension of New Deal achievements will be offered the voters."

The result: Another crushing defeat at the polls. Leaders are making the mistake of believing that dissatisfaction in some sections over some phases of the New Deal is a signal for the return of Coolidge and Hoover conservatives. And one, not blind, knows this isn't true."
