

DATES USED IN GOOSEBERRY PIE

Unusual Combination of Fruits Used to Make Pie.

In a middle-western kitchen the sight of bushes loaded with more gooseberries than the family could eat inspired the creation of this rare recipe.

The healthful date has been used in pies for many years but date and gooseberry pie is news. The recipe follows:

2 cups cooked gooseberries
2 cups pasteurized dates, sliced
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup gooseberry juice (in water)
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Use canned or cooked gooseberries which have been drained. Combine berries and sliced dates.

Mix together the sugar, salt, cinnamon and cornstarch; pour over this dry mixture the gooseberry syrup which has been heated to boiling point, or hot water.

Cook this until thick and clear. Add this to fruit and cool. Put this filling into a baked pastry shell and serve plain or with sweetened whipped cream on top. Sprinkle cinnamon on top.

BERRIES MAKE PARFAIT

Milk, Cream, Vanilla Krenel and Sugar Required.

A new way to serve red raspberries is a cool parfait.

Dissolve a package of vanilla krenel in 1/2 cup cold milk, add 1 1/2 cups hot milk, and still until it comes to a boil.

Mash a box of red raspberries and sweeten to taste with powdered sugar. Whip a cup of heavy cream.

When the krenel is cold, add raspberries and whipped cream; pour into parfait glasses and chill in refrigerator.

HOT SANDWICH RECOMMENDED

Served With Salad and
Dessert, Satisfying
Meal Results.

When summer days provide so many excuses for running away from kitchen duties, a few short cuts in meal preparation are much to be desired.

Sandwiches of the usual type, versatile as they are, do not always fill the bill for the hurry-up meal.

Hot sandwiches, however, often fit in splendidly, and when supplemented by a salad and a dessert, make a satisfying meal. The following Turkish sandwich recipe is suggested:

1 cup roast pork, diced
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 cup stock
1/4 cup cream
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon onion juice
1/2 cup English walnut meats
Paprika
Slices of toasted bread
Make a thick sauce of the flour, butter, cream, and meat stock. Add the other ingredients and heat thoroughly. Place on slices of hot toast. Brush with melted butter, and place under a broiler flame for a minute to brown slightly. Garnish with slices of olives.

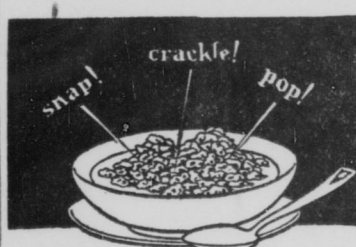

El Matador Cocktail
One-third Manzanilla sherry, 1-2 brandy, 1-6 cherry brandy, 1-6 maraschino, 3 dashes orange bitters, Ice and shake.
