SNUB ROBINSON
IN RADIO LISTS

Indiana Doesn't Rate So High Since Watson Left Senate.

By Times Special
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—In the Republican national campaign of 1932, the booming voice of big "Jim" Watson rang throughout the land on the radio networks. For, the Hoosier Senator was the leader of his party.

With his defeat, Indiana doesn't rate so highly.

Senator Arthur R. Robinson (L'll Arthur) is not on the list of those scheduled by the National Republican Congressional Campaign Committee to address the country over the nation-wide networks.

"Robbie" rates as a sort of pariah with his colleagues, being accepted by neither the progressive nor conservative groups.

"No, Senator Robinson is not scheduled for any radio talk," committee headquarters answered upon inquiry today. "Our time is all allotted thus far. But he may be given some later, of course."

The programs have been arranged through September, it was admitted.

ANGLER WINS 62-HOUR FIGHT WITH HUGE FISH

792-Pound Tuna Tows Launch 200 Miles; Near World Record.

By United Press
LIVERPOOL, N. S., Aug. 10.—A huge tuna fish which comes close to the world record has been caught off here with rod and reel by Thomas Howell, millionaire Chicago sportsman.

The fish weighed 792 pounds, an American record and only six pounds under the world record tuna caught by E. T. Peel off Scarborough, England, in 1932.

Howell was fishing from a small launch when he hooked the fish and played it for 62 hours, the game
