

ALL IS READY FOR CORONATION OF WILL SMITH

New Brown Derby King to Be Crowned at Fair Tomorrow Night.

Speeches were practiced over breakfast doughnuts today as cohorts of Dr. Will H. Smith Jr., the new "King" of Brown Derbyville, prepared for the "most distinguished citizen" coronation ceremonies to be held tomorrow night at 7:30 in front of the grand stand at the Indiana state fair.

Engravers were busy carving deep the name of "King" Will I on the silver plaque while the royal banner brushed off the brown kelly and made it ready for the coronation of the new king.

"King" Joe McLafferty, 1933 winner; "King" Tom Quinn, 1932 ruler, and "King" Charles Sumner, 1931 monarch, are expected to attend the new reign of the House of Smith at the state fair.

In the meantime, the royal crown has been placed by "King" Smith's serfs in the window of the Garden of Italy, 105 North Illinois street, for all to see.

Tomorrow morning the parade lineup and the march route will be announced.

Tomorrow night the King will cast his straw lid and felt aside for a 7 1/2 "dardy." Due to a shortage in derbies "King" Will will be crowned with a 6 1/2.

Watch for the parade tomorrow night. Be at the state fair at 7:30 to see the regal robes and diadem of brown garnish a new brow.

DRINK-CRAZED FARMER KILLS 5 IN ILLINOIS

Sixth Wounded Critically; Slayer Shot by Police, Near Death.

By United Press

EAST CLINTON, Ill., Sept. 5.—Fiery bootleg liquor and a thirst for revenge—five persons dead, a sixth critically wounded and the killer in a hospital with two stomach wounds.

That was the police story in brief today of a few minutes of terror and horror in which Fred Blink, 45, farmer and truck owner, shot and killed two women and three unarmed men, wounded another, and himself was shot by Police Chief Frank Kustes of Fulton, Ill., as he attempted to blow off his head with a shotgun.

The dead:

Mrs. Timothy H. Corrick Jr., Des Moines.

John Hamilton, Fulton farmer.

Mrs. Jennie Walters, Sterling, Ill.

Blink's housekeeper.

Henry Menje, Belvidere, Ill.

Webb Collier, Sterling, brother of Mrs. Walters.

Physicians at the Jane Lamb hospital in Clinton, said Joe Collier, aged farm hand, probably would die. Blink was in dangerous condition.

Police said the mass slaying was caused by a brain added by drink and pent up rancor. Hamilton, Blink's partner for years, they said, rented the farm the two had operated together. Hamilton notified Blink that their partnership was ended.

In an ugly mood, heated by steady drinking for several days, Blink climbed into his truck yesterday afternoon with the announcement that he was "going to find Hamilton."

A few hours later Blink drove up to the farmhouse, and the slayings followed.

Indiana in Brief

By Times Special

MUNCIE, Sept. 5.—The Edwin Hancock Engineering Company, Chicago, has given the city of Muncie ten days' warning that unless some action is taken, the company will act to enforce a contract which it declares exists to provide the city with engineering service.

George Gascoigne, Cleveland, O., was employed a few months ago to give engineering service in connection with a new interceptor sewer system and sewage disposal plant.

City officials have received letters from the Hancock company, stating it entered into an engineering service contract with the city in 1928. However, it is said, search of city files failed to disclose such a contract, but minutes of the public works board show a motion was adopted authorizing a contract.

Students Will Work

By United Press

GREENCASTLE, Sept. 5.—A cooperative house plan to reduce living costs of students, originated at Indiana university two years ago, will be inaugurated at De Pauw university when the fall term opens Sept. 10.

The plan, worked out by Mrs. Ethel Bell when she was educational director of the Union county farm bureau, permits students with only a small amount of cash to use canned goods, meats, vegetables and other farm products as part payment of their living costs.

Although especially adapted to 4-H club members, the plan is open to other students who can qualify, Mrs. Bell said.

The house at De Pauw will be in charge of Mrs. Bell's daughter, Miss Irene Mikesell and will have a house mother also in attendance. It will accommodate twenty men students.

Those living in the house will pay $15 a month, approximately half the average living cost for De Pauw students, and each will contribute about 100 quarts of canned foods to the commissary from which will be drawn supplies for meals served at the house.

Students will do all the work, requiring about an hour a day from each.

Silage Yield Heavy

By Times Special

GREENSBURG, Sept. 5.—Decatur county farmers, faced with a short corn crop, are converting much of the growing grain into silage. Stalk growth is unusually good, it is reported. One silo which ordinarily will hold stalks from ten acres, has been filled with stalks from only five.

Large quantities of silage will be used during the winter, because of a shortage of hay. Price as high as $18 a ton is being asked for hay.

MUNCIE, Sept. 5.—Levy of a special tax to pay back salaries of seven discharged Muncie firemen who won a suit against the city, is asked in a suit filed by their counsel. The city is obligated to the seven men for a total of $60,000.

BODY WAS FULL OF RHEUMATISM

Indo-Vin Cleared It From His System; Had Pains All Over Him.

Mr. Charles Schmid, widely-known resident of Oaklandon, Ind. (just 14 miles from Indianapolis) has now come forward with his TRUTH-FUL and REMARKABLE statement, praising the new, scientific mixture of Nature's Medicines, known as Indo-Vin, which is now being introduced to large crowds here in Indianapolis by the Indo-Vin Man in person at Hook's Drug Store, Illinois and Washington streets. Mr. Schmid is a widely-known man, with hundreds of friends throughout Indianapolis and vicinity. Following is his statement:

MR. CHARLES SCHMID

"If anybody ever suffered more from rheumatism than I did in the past YEARS I don't see how they could stand it," said Mr. Schmid. "Several years ago I began to have sciatic rheumatism and got so I was almost disabled with it. My arms and shoulders got weak and painful and were almost stiff. Even my back was weak and sore and it just seemed like my WHOLE SYSTEM was poisoned and full of this rheumatic affliction. I was also having bowel trouble, in fact, this had gone on so long it had gotten chronic with me and I was always taking physics.

"I tried everything under the sun but nothing helped me until I got Indo-Vin and it has done me more good than everything else put together. This medicine, by its great natural action, has eliminated all the poisons from my system and that awful rheumatism that had been over my body is all gone and the joints of my arms and shoulders are limbered up. You don't know how wonderful it is to be free of those awful rheumatic pains. This medicine is the most wonderful thing that I EVER heard of and I gladly endorse it."

The Indo-Vin Man is now at Hook's Drug Store, Illinois and Washington streets, Indianapolis, daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining this new mixture of Nature's Medicines. Also being sold at all other Hook's Dependable Drug Stores and in all the nearby towns by every good druggist throughout this whole Indianapolis section.—Advertisement.
