Indiana in Brief

By Times Special

AFAYETTE, Oct. 5.—Officials of the State Soldiers home here used Huey Long tactics to prevent registration of inmates for voting, it is charged by Republican leaders of Tippecanoe county.

According to a statement by W. Lynn Parkinson, Republican county chairman, who headed a delegation which called at the home to register voters, he was informed that Colonel John H. Gilpin, commandant, had advised his subordinates that they were not to admit Glen Starke, county registration clerk, or any of his assistants.

With Parkinson on the call at the home were Mr. Starke and several deputy clerks.

Beer Dealers Object

By Times Special

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Oct. 5.—Beer dealers in Crawfordsville and vicinity don't like the recently adopted beer regulatory ordinance, and have informed the city council that unless it is amended, there will be a court battle.

The ordinance fixes the closing hour at midnight. The beer dealers want it changed to 1 a. m.

Constitutionality of the ordinance was questioned by Claude Mitchell, spokesman for the dealers, who pointed out that the measure applies not only to the city, but also to a zone within a radius of four miles of the city limits.

Old Will Filed

By Times Special

NOBLESVILLE, Oct. 5.—The will of Edward F. Klepfer, made nearly twenty-four years ago, has been admitted to probate here. It bequeaths all of his estate to his widow, Mrs. Lucille Klepfer, who preceded him in death by a few months. She left a will giving her estate to Mr. Klepfer and an adopted daughter, Jane Gottmann Anderson, and kidneys do not function prop-
