

HAYES IN MIAMI TO PREPARE FOR LEGION PARLEY

Debate on Bonus to Be Free and Unlimited, Chief Says.

By United Press

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 15.—The American Legion set up temporary headquarters at Miami today while leaders expected another battle over the soldiers' bonus at the seventeenth national convention.

National Commander Edward A. Hayes, who came here from Indianapolis, said he expected the controversial measure to reach the convention floor next Tuesday or Wednesday. The convention opens Sunday.

The legion's chief said the floor will be open to every delegate who wants to be heard on the bonus. "There will be no steam-roller for or against," he added.

Commander Hayes said he had been informed that President Roosevelt would not appear before the convention, as he did last year in Chicago.

Meanwhile, the legislative program the legion will lay before the delegates began taking form. It includes wartime conscription of all industry, the universal draft and added compensation for widows and orphans of World war veterans.

The seventy-third congress passed a law allowing widows of veterans of 30 per cent disability $22 a month and $3 to $15 a month for each child. Legionnaires will demand of the seventy-fourth congress the same compensation for widows and orphans of the World war that the government provides for widows and orphans of other wars.

Two thousand of the men who commanded American soldiers in 1917 gathered here today for the annual convention of the military order of the World war. The organization is composed of commissioned officers of the World war.

Kossa Answers Charges

Charges that members of the American Legion were treasury raiders were answered last night by Frank R. Kossa, Jeffersonville, state Legion commander, at the fifteenth anniversary of the organization of the Bruce P. Robison post.

Mr. Kossa told those attending the anniversary banquet that less than 10 per cent of the members of the Legion ever had drawn any compensation from the government.
