

LABOR DEMANDS SHORT WEEK IN AUTO INDUSTRY

Test to Come in Request for
Code Revision Due
Nov. 3.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The automobile industry—trail-blazer in American business—today became the spearhead of an American Federation of Labor drive through NRA to secure shorter hours and increased wages for all industrial workers.

The recovery board has before it the labor advisory board's approval of a federation request to re-open the auto code for amendment. The code expires Nov. 3. Labor wants to pare the work-week to thirty hours, boost minimum wages and those above the minimum. Particularly "white collar" workers, and eliminate the controversial "merit" clause. Labor was promised a public hearing by former administrator, Hugh S. Johnson, before the code would be renewed again.

NIRB Chairman, Clay Williams received the request from labor board members following Thursday's meeting, attended by Labor Secretary Frances Perkins and Assistant Edward F. McGrady.

Williams is silent.

Mr. Williams afterward refused to discuss the matter, but William Green, federation president and acting labor board chairman, said NIRB was not in a position to say now what can be done.

"Apparently no request has been made by the industry for hearing or extension of the code," Mr. Green said.

Confidential sources in the industry confirmed this statement. It is believed, however, that automobile manufacturers are willing to renew the code only if there are no changes. Their attitude is unchanged since the code was last renewed sixty days ago.

They fought, and won then, against elimination of the "merit" clause which labor claims is recognition of company unions. It permits hiring and firing on merit, regardless of union affiliation.

Bitter Fight Forecast

Labor's determined stand on these amendments presages a bitter fight, with steel, rubber, textile and other major industries where workers are restive, watching closely the outcome.

Labor's demands are the first presented since the administrative board succeeded Mr. Johnson at NRA, since the President's plan of an industrial truce was advanced to aid recovery, and since the federation held its annual convention.

The labor board meeting concentrated on the automobile industry situation, according to Mr. Green.

A process to extract radium from ores in thirty days, in place of the present six-month period, is said to have been developed on the Pacific coast.

KERN RECALLS OLD SCANDALS UNDER G. O. P.

Nominee Calls On Group at Butler to Uphold City's Good Name.

Calling upon Indianapolis to avert the disgrace of grand jury investigations and scandal attached to Coffin-controlled city administration, Superior Judge John W. Kern, Democratic mayoralty nominee, appearing before the Jeffersonian Club of Butler university yesterday said, "Although the name of Walter Pritchard is on the ballot, my actual opponent is George V. Coffin."

"We do not have to call your attention to the bold-faced type of publicity that was given to Indianapolis and the state in newspapers and magazines throughout the country when George V. Coffin last held control," Judge Kern said.

"You can not forget the series of grand jury investigations, indictments and removal of Coffin office-holders from their offices. After that disgraceful period, you voters staged a bloodless revolution in which you elected your present Democratic mayor by the largest majority ever given to a candidate on either ticket."

"He has kept faith with you, and as a result of his splendid administration the nation today looks to Indianapolis with respect and admiration instead of the spirit of ridicule that prevailed when Coffin and his cohorts held sway."

Pointing out how Mayor Sullivan's administration has reduced the indebtedness left by a Coffin-controlled administration, Judge Kern asked:

"Are you willing to trust your future tax indebtedness to a man who would not control himself but merely as a puppet candidate of George V. Coffin and whose every move would be controlled by a political boss?"

Judge Kern read an excerpt from the Wall Street Journal, leading financial publication, in which the financial condition of Indianapolis was praised. The nominee pledged himself to carry on the work begun by Mayor Sullivan in readjusting the city after years of "Republican ruin."

Other speakers were Congressman Louis Ludlow, Joseph T. Markey, nominee for superior court, and Thomas Hendricks, state senator nominee, President Ora Hartman, president.

SPEED TRAIN'S ENGINEER FAINTS AFTER TRIP

The strain of 56 hours and 56 minutes of hair-raising travel ended with the arrival in Grand Central station, New York, of the Union Pacific's new streamlined train, Harry Robinson, engineer, fainted after being congratulated by railroad executives. He is shown as he lay on the station platform after his collapse while being interviewed and photographed. He was quickly revived.

Mrs. Robinson Escaped in Terre Haute Police Mixup

Failure of department of justice agents to seek co-operation of Terre Haute police, enabled Mrs. Thomas H. Robinson, indicted in the kidnapping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, to slip away from the agents in Terre Haute, The Indianapolis Times learned today on high authority.

The department, knowing that Mrs. Robinson would arrive in Terre Haute by train, sent a heavily armed squad of agents to the station there. They showed their pistols and revolvers conspicuously and aroused the suspicion of several persons at the terminal. The Times informant said.

Police were called and rushed to the station to investigate "suspicious, armed men" about the same time Mrs. Robinson was arriving.

She saw the police activity and managed to slip away from the agents.

The Times informant stated that the Terre Haute police authorities were critical of the department's lack of co-operation and had pointed out to the agents that, if they had been informed, it would have been an easy task to watch all transportation entrances in and out of the city.

Mrs. Robinson was coming to Indianapolis from Nashville, where the ransom money had been delivered.

ELECTION HAULING JOB IS WON BY SCOTT CO.

County Commissioners Not to Pay
Until 30 Days Are Over.

The Marion county commissioners today awarded a contract for hauling voting machines and other election equipment to the Scott Trucking Company, 425 Harmon street, Ernest K. Marker, president, announced.

The winning bid provides for payment, on a weekly basis, and pending on the size truck required, of $42.50 for a half ton truck, $50.55 for one ton, $57.50 for two ton, $64.40 for three ton and $101.26 for five ton.

Because of careless handling, which cost the county for repairs last year, Mr. Marker said, the new contract stipulates that payment will not be made until thirty days after the contract had been completed.

Australia had to destroy millions of medallions, cigarette boxes, chocolate boxes, etc., bearing the portrait of Prince George of England, when it was decided to send Prince Henry as the royal visitor to the Melbourne centenary celebrations.
