

'MUD' CAMPAIGN NEARING CLOSE IN BAY STATE

Vitriolic Charges Hurlled by Leading Candidates for Governorship.

By United Press
BOSTON, Nov. 2.—A campaign enlivened by almost unprecedented mud-slinging neared the ballot-box stage today in Massachusetts.

Next Tuesday a record number of 1,850,000 Bay State voters will be eligible to parade to the polls to choose a United States senator, a Governor, fifteen congressmen and minor public officers.

Overhanging the U. S. senatorial battle in point of public interest is the fight for the gubernatorial chair to be vacated by Joseph B. Ely, Democrat completing his second term. There are seven aspirants to the governorship but only three are conceded any chance of victory.

Gaspar Griswold Bacon, Republican—48 years old; a six-footer who retains the athletic bearing that made him a formidable member of the Harvard four-oared crew back in 1907; served with the army, general scholar, and regarded as an authority on the constitution; Boston blueblood and member of one of Cape Cod's oldest families. Lieutenant-Governor in 1932.

James Michael Curley, Democrat—59 years old; self-styled "original Roosevelt man of Massachusetts"; has won seventeen of twenty-two contests during thirty-seven-year political career; served three four-year terms as Boston's mayor; declined Roosevelt appointment as U.
S. ambassador to Poland; enjoys browsing in bookshops.

Frank Alexander Goodwin, Independent, equal tax candidate—60 years old, a man of bristly vizor who has been a stormy petrel of Massachusetts politics for years.

Both Mr. Curley and Mr. Bacon are pro-New Deal, whereas Mr.
Goodwin has opposed some of the Roosevelt policies. Though not expected to win, Mr. Goodwin, it is believed, may prove a potent factor in sapping the support which his regular-party opponents might normally count on.

Seldom has Massachusetts seen a more vitriolic campaign. Mr. Bacon assailed Mr. Curley's record during the latter's twelve years at Boston city hall. Mr. Curley has attacked Mr. Bacon's labor record as a legislator, while Mr. Goodwin has bombarded both.

Mr. Goodwin has asserted that he should be elected "as a protest against the present party system."

In the senatorial race, United

IN DEATH'S SHADOW

Near hysterics during the closing argument of her trial on charges of complicity in the murder of a New York policeman, Marquita Lopez, former night club hostess, wept copiously as she awaited the jury's decision as to her guilt. The defense pictured her as a "love slave" who was present at the fatal shooting against her will.

States Senator David I. Walsh is confident that he will be re-elected for a fourth term. He, too, is a New Deal proponent, while his Republican opponent, the colorful Robert M. (Bob) Washburn, president of the (Theodore) Roosevelt club, favors some phases of the New Deal, with reservations.

PURSE THIEF JAILED FOR 6-MONTH TERM

Youth Beaten Off by Policemen's Wives Also Fined $100.

Gilbert Wright, alias Gilbert Wright, 18, city, was sentenced to six months and fined $100 in municipal court four yesterday on a charge of assault and battery with intent to rob.

Wright went down to defeat Wednesday night before two women when he tried to snatch a purse from one of them. The women, Mrs. Gladys Laughery, 2011 Koehne street, and Mrs. Anna Burk, 1919 Koehne street, both wives of policemen, not only knocked the footpad down, but disarmed him when they saw that his revolver lacked a cylinder. This proved too much for Wright who fled only to be captured by traffic policemen.

350 SCIENTISTS TO MEET HERE FOR CONCLAVE

Hoosiers to Convene Nov.
15 at Butler; Dr. Pearson Is Chairman.

More than three hundred and fifty scientists from the staffs of Hoosier educational institutions and commercial laboratories are expected to assemble at Butler university Nov. 15 to 17 for the fiftieth anniversary meeting of the Indiana Academy of Science.

Dr. Nathan R. Pearson, Butler, program chairman, announced today that the celebration is attracting the attention of scientists in all parts of the country.

More than seventy-five scientists have contributed original papers which will be read as a part of the three-day program. In addition, a large number have submitted papers by title. There will become a part of the minutes of the anniversary meeting but will not be read.

Several universities and industrial houses will provide exhibits displaying recent research which they have done. Purdue university will display some of its recent findings of a scientific nature which will benefit agricultural interests.

Butler is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of its guests. Members of the general entertainment committee are Dr.
Pearson, Dr. S. E. Elliott, Dr. J. E.
Potzger, Professor Ida B. Wilhite, Dr. K. S. Means, and Dr. H. G. Nester. Day sessions of the convention will be held in Arthur Jordan Memorial hall and evening sessions will be at the Claypool.

State officers of the academy, who will be in general charge when the convention opens, are, Dr. J. A.

Nieuwland, Notre Dame university, president; Dr. M. L. Fisher, Purdue university, vice-president; Dr. R. C.
Friesner, Butler, secretary; Dr. Paul Weatherwax, Indiana university, treasurer; Dr. S. E. Cain, Indiana, editor; and Dr. W. E. Edington, De Pauw university, press secretary.

NEW STATE LIBRARY DEDICATION DEC. 7

Ceremony Is Planned for $1,000,000 Building.

Dedication of the new state library, Capitol avenue and Ohio street, has been set officially for Dec. 7, it was announced at the state house today.

Charles M. Thompson, local attorney, will preside at the ceremony.
The invocation will be delivered by Rabbi Morris Feuerlicht. Herbert Kenney, president of the state library board, will deliver the presentation address and the speech of acceptance will be delivered by Governor Paul V. McNutt.

The building, which will be completed at a cost of $1,000,000, will meet all requirements for the next fifty years, state officials believe.

KIDNAP THREAT NOTE IS LEFT BY BURGLAR

Thief Takes $107 From Billfold; Then Scrawls Warning.

A burglar who left a note bearing a kidnapping threat broke into the home of Mrs. Ethel White, 835 Birch avenue, yesterday, according to a report to police. After taking $107 from a bill fold, the intruder left a note which said "I will get you and Clifton tonight. You know me." Clifton is Mrs. White's small son, she said.
