

'HIBISCUS' CASE DEFENSE READY TO CALL WIFE

Doke Attorneys Resort to Original Plan in Effort to Save Slayer.

WOODLAND, Cal., Nov. 6.—The next surprise move in "the white hibiscus" slaying case may bring to the witness stand Helen Louise Doke, who shared her love with her husband and the young poet he killed. It was learned today while the trial was in recess.

When the case resumes tomorrow, it was understood that Prosecutor C. C. McDonald will call for rebuttal testimony the pretty wife of Judson C. Doke, former San Leandro city official who shot and killed her lover, 22-year-old Lamar Hollingshead.

If McDonald subpoenas Mrs. Doke, it will be the first appearance in the court of the woman to whom young Hollingshead dedicated his epic poem, "The White Hibiscus," and to whom he wrote scores of letters telling of a love that surpassed every other consideration in his life.

Doke Only Witness

The defense originally had planned to accept her offer to testify for Doke, but the plan was dropped. Only rebuttal testimony and final arguments remain before the defendant's fate is given a jury of eight men and four women, most of them middle-aged, prosaic farmers.

The defense suddenly rested yesterday after presenting Doke as its only witness.

The defendant told the story of the "White Hibiscus" romance and its climax, shooting of Hollingshead in a ranch shack near Dunnigan last July.

Husband Tells Story

He told of learning from Mrs. Elizabeth Ingels, "postmistress" for the letters the lovers exchanged, that the love affair had been resumed. Doke went to his wife at her parent's home at Lodi and asked her about it. She expressed a desire to end the romance, he related, and said she told him she loved her husband. But later Doke learned the couple was meeting again so he decided to see Hollingshead, who was working at the Dunnigan ranch.

The two men who loved Helen Louise—the husband eight years older than she and the college poet several years her junior—faced each other in a bunkhouse.

"Something seemed to pass over me. The next thing I remember Lamar was lying at my feet. I didn't hear the shot or his scream," Doke testified.

WHEELER DAM SHOWN IN AMAZING BEAUTY BY ARCHITECT

Starting in its massive beauty, the $40,000,000 Wheeler dam is shown here in an architect's conception of the completed project. The huge barrier is being built fifteen miles above Wilson dam in the Tennessee river, and is part of the TVA program. More than a mile long and sixty feet high, it is being built primarily for flood control and navigation, with power at first being only a by-product. A 45,000-horse power turbine will be installed, with space for additional installations that will total 450,000-horse power.

ELECTION FAILS TO HALT WORK IN FUND DRIVE

Campaign Is Extended to Friday; $144,823.95
Still Needed.

Election day activities failed to interrupt today the determined drive of volunteer workers for the Indianapolis Community Fund to obtain their $727,217 quota before Friday's deadline. A 45,000-horse power turbine will be installed, with space for additional installations that will total 450,000-horse power.

While balloting progressed in city precincts, fund workers continued their canvass in an effort to gain pledges for $144,823.95 balance still to be raised.

The decision to extend the fund drive until Friday was reached yesterday when fund executives and workers realized that intervention of election day would result in restricted opportunities for the army of solicitors to contact the public.

Arthur V. Brown, campaign chairman, reported $32,898.85 in additional gifts at yesterday's meeting in the Claypool.

Gifts by Employes

The employes' division submitted pledges of $15,177.38. Outstanding among employe gifts was one from workers of the Polk Sanitary Milk Company, who increased last year's $283.50 to $1,071.95.

Other employee groups contributing were:

J. D. Adams Company, $835; Coca-Cola Bottling Company, $384.55; Eli Lilly & Co., $12,704.60; William H. Block Company, $2,921.84; Indiana Terminal and Refrigerating Company, $235.60.

Also the Prehofer Baking Company, $473.20; Artificial Ice and Cold Storage Company, $110.50; Indianapolis Glove Company, $1,000; State Auto Insurance Association, $629.50; Indianapolis News, $475.25; Railroadmen's Building and Loan Association, $144.

Contributions Are Hiked

Westinghouse Electric Supply Company workers contributed $107; Colonial Furniture Company, $324;

OATH FOR ELECTION BOARD CLERK GIVEN FOLLOWING DISPUTE

Sam Reed, election clerk at 1624 Columbia avenue, was sworn in this morning "courageously and courteously" to defend the Constitution.

John K. Ruckelshaus, deputy election commissioner, was called to that precinct to settle a dispute as to swearing in the clerk. When the argument was straightened out, the election judge asked Mr. Reed, "Do you solemnly swear the evidence you give—"

"No, that isn't right," Mr. Ruckelshaus said. "Ask him if he will defend the Constitution."

Literally following instructions, the judge asked Mr. Reed, "Have you now decided to defend the Constitution courageously and courteously?"

Central Rubber and Supply Company, $163.50.

Increased giving also was reported from these employe groups:

National Cash Register Company, $57; Mooney-Mueller-Ward Company, $236.50; Beach & Arthur, $84; Central Supply Company, $133; Hibben-Holloway & Co., $301; C. P. Lesh Paper Company, $407.

John Lees Company, $67; Hoke Manufacturing Company, $141.50; Tucker & Dorsey Company, $55.30; Metropolitan Casualty Company, $42; Herdick & Boggs, $23; Hollenbeck Press, $19; Indiana Lumberman's Mutual Insurance Company, $401.75.

Indianapolis Forging Company, $150; Sterling Laundry, $84; Electric Steel Castings Company, $33.50; Indiana Inspection Bureau, $238; Prudential Insurance Company, $235; Merchants National bank, $136; Sears, Roebuck & Co., $197.25; Central Motor Parts Company, $236.20; Sander & Recker Furniture Company, $51.50; Paramount Pictures Distributing Company, $51.50.

The House of Crane, $81.50; Deubener Shopping Bag Company, $32.25; Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Corporation, $46.35; R. K. O. Distributing Company, $27.50.

Paul O. Ferrell, Real Silk Hosiery Mills vice-president, was the speaker at yesterday's report meeting.

STATE INDUSTRY CHIEFS TO HOLD PARLEY NOV. 23

McNutt, Others to Address
Research Conference at Purdue.

Leaders of Indiana industries will meet Nov. 23-24 to discuss today's business problems at the fifth annual Industrial Research Conference at Purdue university.

Governor Paul V. McNutt, David E. Ross, Lafayette manufacturer and president of the Purdue board of trustees, Walter B. Pitkin, New York City, author of "Life Begins At Forty," and E. J. Mehren, Chicago, Ill., Portland Cement Association's president, will be speakers during the two-day sessions.

Mr. Pitkin will headline the speakers at a stag dinner planned for the night of Nov. 23.

FAKE SOLICITORS ARE REPORTED BY GROCERS

Indiana Retail Group Denies Campaign for Funds.

Retail grocers are being solicited for funds by "fake" representatives of the Indiana Retail Grocers and Meat Dealers Association, the association reported today. Solicitation is for $5 or less, according to reports from the Evansville trading area, Posey and Gibson counties; the Indianapolis market, and other parts of the state.

Solicitations by the association are made only by persons presenting credentials on official association letterheads, stamped with the association seal in the lower left-hand corner, C. J. Steis, secretary, said today. Association officers now are soliciting small contributions for a legislative fund.

Here's the ABC of COLDS-CONTROL

A To Help PREVENT Colds

At the first sneeze or nasal irritation, quickly a few drops of Vicks Vapo-Rub. Its timely use helps to prevent many colds—and to throw off colds in their early stages.

B To Help SHORTEN a Cold

At bedtime, just rub on Vicks Vapo-Rub, the mother's standby in treating colds. All through the night, by stimulation and inhalation, Vapo-Rub fights the cold direct.

C To Build RESISTANCE to Colds: Follow the simple rules of health that are part of Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. The Plan has been clinically tested by practicing physicians—and proved in home use by millions. (You'll find full details of this unique Plan in each Vicks package.)
