

Prescott S. Bush Is Nominated for U. S. G. A. Chief

Jacques to Relinquish Golf Post in January.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Prescott S. Bush of Greenwich, Conn., will be president of the United States Golf Association for 1935, succeeding Herbert Jacques of New York.

The association's nominating committee yesterday named Bush as the next president, which is tantamount to election at the annual meeting in January.

Bush has been vice-president of the association for the last two years and previously served as secretary. His nomination caused some surprise as ordinary precedent called for the elevation of John G. Jackson of New York, who was vice-president this year. It was understood that Bush was named at the behest of Jacques because of the latter's law business.

Jackson continues as a vice-president. A. M. Reid of New York, secretary, was slated for the second vice-presidency. He will be succeeded as secretary by Frank M. Hardt of Philadelphia. Harold W. Pierce of Boston will be retained as treasurer, and Morton G. Bogue of New York as counsel.

Dreel, Galyarrow Win Pimlico Events

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—Dreel, a fleet son of Trojan, that races for A. G. Vanderbilt, won the featured Wewahatchee Pimlico yesterday from seven top-grade sprinting players. He beat Can't Remember by two lengths, with Band Wagon in the money.

In near attendance while Can't Remember set the pace for Band Wagon, Dreel came up fast in the final quarter and won going away. He ran the six furlongs over a fast track in 1:12 and paid $4.50 for each $2 straight investment in the mutuels.

Mrs. T. W. Durant's Galyarrow stepped home winner over eleven ordinary players in the mile and seventy-yard fifth race at the astonishing price of $109.60 for a deuce. He was straining hard to beat Scotch Soldier by a head, with Smooth Crossing in the picture. Couci kept the winner close up from the start, gained command at the six-furlong mark and saved the verdict by a terrific drive.

Spades Eleven Out for Fourth City Grid Title

Fast Ems-Roe Squad Meets East Side Foe, Brightwood, in Climax Fray Sunday.

Indianapolis' two outstanding amateur football squads are grooming feverishly this week in preparation for the "big" game of the city season next Sunday. The undefeated Brightwood eleven and the powerful Spades team will clash at the Brookside No. 1 gridiron for the Em-Roe Senior League title, virtually the city championship in the 155-pound class.

Yale Fearful of Georgia Strength

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 9.—Defensive plays were being stressed in Yale practices in the belief Georgia may prove to be as strong as Dartmouth when they meet Saturday. De Angelis, Curtin and Grosscup, most seasoned of the linemen, were depended upon to carry out this responsibility.

Yale probably will extend itself at the start Saturday and get goal-minded from the kickoff. That tactic caught Pennsylvania and Dartmouth flatfooted and rung up a tally soon after the kickoff.

The Georgia team, thirty-three strong, was expected here late tonight.

FANFERN PAYS $23.80 IN PLATER TRIUMPH

ARLINGTON, Tex., Nov. 9.—The El Ranchito claiming handicap, feature race here yesterday, saw L. Berda's Fanfern racing to a surprise triumph over Reservist, Impeach and three other class players to pay $23.80 for $2 in the mutuels.

The race, at a mile and a sixteenth over a fast track, was run in 1:44.3-5. Fanfern, a Dunlop filly, assumed command early and was mistress thereafter. She was piloted by O. Harbort.

Ford Frick Just Sport Writer Two Years Ago

New President of National League Rates as 'Real Grand Guy' Among Those Who Know Him.

By STUART CAMERON
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Ford Frick, president of the National League, if that isn't a success story in a few words there isn't any such thing.

Two years ago Ford was just one of the boys. It's true that he was one of the more outstanding boys, in that his readers paid some semblance of attention to what he pounded out on his portable and on the best office had to offer. But he was still catching rattlers to the ball games, absorbing the moisture of unappetizing football game showers and doing his best to make track meets and swimming carnivals sound as interesting as they are supposed to be.

In other words he was just another sports writer. Now he ranks with the top three of his favorite sport, baseball; the others, of course, being Mr. Landis, the top man of the show, and Mr. Harbridge, whose name is gilded on the door of the American League headquarters.

Between now, when the National League came around to voting Ford in as president, and 8 o'clock, when the sweet seal and vinegar valley poker club began its bi-weekly session to improve the breed of inside-straight, there must have been seven or eight persons who asked in effect, "I see Ford Frick was elected president of the National League. 'Just what kind of a guy is he?'"

The answer was "he's a real grand guy" and that's all the answer anybody needs.

For those who can take their baseball presidents or leave them and who don't pay much attention to such things, it might be set down that Ford, two years ago, was a baseball writer and radio commentator for the New York Journal. An opening developed in the National League's service bureau. This is an office which supplies "dope" to sports writers. Ford got the job. He had held this job less than one year when John A. Heydler announced, suddenly, that he was resigning. Immediately talk of "Frick for president" was heard around the baseball loops. This seemed a smart idea, but unlike so many such, this one actually crystallized.

Frick, nearing 40, is a native of Indiana. He graduated from De Pauw university in 1915. He was born on a farm near Kendallville in the Hoosier state.

Blackhawks Take Fast Hockey Tilt

Game at St. Louis Attracts 12,622 Fans.

ST LOUIS, Nov. 9.—St. Louisans—12,622 of them—got their first taste of big league hockey last night and liked it, in spite of the St. Louis Eagles' 3-1 defeat by the world champion Chicago Blackhawks in the opening contest of the National Hockey league.

Goals by Tommy Cook and Louis Trudel in the last five minutes of play broke a 1-1 deadlock to send the Blackhawks to victory. The game was rough and full of color. As many as four players were in the penalty box at one time on two occasions last night.

The National League hockey club from Ottawa moved to St. Louis this season after the St. Louis Flyers, an American Hockey Association team, played to capacity crowds all last year.

COLLEGE GAME CANCELED

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The Canisius-West Virginia Wesleyan football game scheduled for tomorrow has been canceled by mutual agreement. No reason for the cancellation was offered.

Let's Go Hunting

By GEORGE DENNY

SPORTING goods stores report heavy sales of guns and ammunition. Dry weather during the spring months was perfect for the rearing of bob-white broods, frosts have killed the vegetation in most parts of the state and recent rains should make seeding conditions good.

Prospects are far better than average for the bird season that opens tomorrow.

For the last month bird dogs have been kept under lock and key. One hunter that we know insists that his pair of setters sleep in his room. He would rather lose his money than have his pooches stolen, he says.

A prominent local dentist always has a bad case of the "jitters" the day before the season opens and has to take a strong sedative in order to sleep that night.

One brilliant and respected Kentucky judge never would hear a case on the opening day. Once a brash young attorney with no appreciation of the finer things of life, said judge, insisted on a hearing that day, intimating that the excuse was silly.

The judge restrained his temper with difficulty and admitted the lawyer's rights in the matter. But on the opening day he was hunting for him, the opposing counsel, in the case and sent a note to the court-room explaining that he was so disabled by a bad attack of itching finger that he would be unable to appear. He neglected to state whether or not it was his trigger finger, but such was presumed to be the case.

Well, hunting is a good, clean vice. Don't worry too much if your son pines for a twenty gauge double and a pointer. He might have been a banker.

YOU rabbit hunters will have to be patient until Monday. The law says Nov. 11 and that's Sunday, so hold everything. We have a hunch that it's all a mistake which will be corrected in the next legislative session.

There seem to be lots of bunnies, by the way. In a week or so they will get smart and spend more time underground, but at first it should not be hard to locate them.

Rabbit hunting with beagles is becoming more popular each year, and with reason. The little dogs are fine pets, for one thing, and their work in the field is a joy to behold.

THE federal duck stamp law is widely misunderstood. Many nimrods think they have to have the one dollar stamp for any sort of hunting. 'Taint so; it's just for migratory bird hunting.

But every sportsman should invest the necessary dollar on the chance

Babe Ruth Clouds Two Homers, Brings Joy to Many Japanese Hearts

By United Press
SENDAI, Japan, Nov. 9.—The moment all Japan has been waiting for came today when George Herman (Babe) Ruth smashed two homers in an exhibition game between the American all-stars and the all-Japan team.

There were far fewer fans in the stands than the crowd of 65,000 which groaned in disappointment when the Babe, a national hero in the land of cherry blossoms and chrysanthemums, failed to hit more than a single in the two games opening the Americans' tour last week-end.

But the Babe came through today in double measure and all is joy and sunshine again in the Japanese hearts.

His homers, coupled with similar wallows by Jimmy Fox, Lou Gehrig and "Bing" Miller, gave the Americans a 7-0 victory over their Japanese opponents.

Colonships Offered for Touchdowns—Huey

By United Press
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 9.—Senator Huey P. Long this time offers a colonship to any and all of his L. S. U. players scoring against George Washington university tomorrow.

"That oughta give us more colonships than Kentucky," he laughed as he sent a telegram to Coach Bill Jones of Louisiana State, breaking the news.

"And our colonels rank higher than Kentucky's," the Kingfish added as an afterthought.

Quaker Hopes Dim for Tiger Upset

Earlham Stars on Shelf as Game Time Looms.

By Times Special
RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 9.—Coach J. O. Ross sent his Earlham college football squad through the final workout of the season here today in preparation for the game with the De Pauw Tigers, which will be played on Reid field tomorrow afternoon.

According to Coach Ross, the prospects for tomorrow's tilt are anything but encouraging. Popover, who has done the punting and signal calling for the Quakers this fall, will be out of the game, due to a good case of the flu. The team, not as yet recovered from an injury suffered in the game with Bluffton two weeks ago.

Last week the Rossmen defeated Rose Poly, 6 to 0, and they are expected to live up to their name, the "Fighting" Quakers, tomorrow.

The probable lineup for the Quakers' final game will find Dickinson and Johnson, ends; Overman and Hunt, tackles; Hill and Harvey, guards; Ruby, center, and Hall, Hancock, Peters and Steinbrink in the backfield.
