

INDIANA BAR TO MAP PROGRAM OF LEGISLATION

Regular Mid-Winter Parley to Be Held in City on Dec. 15.

The Indiana State Bar Association will hold its midwinter meeting Dec. 15 at the Claypool, Wilmer T. Fox, Jeffersonville, association president, announced today.

Because of the association's desire to take final action on the legislative program to be presented to the 1935 general assembly, the meeting is being held earlier than usual this year. The legislative committee, which has been considering measures to be sponsored, will make its report at the meeting through Joseph G. Wood, 76 Whittier place, Indiana law secretary and committee chairman.

One of the speakers at the banquet which will conclude the meeting will be Federal Judge George E. Q. Johnson, Chicago, formerly Chicago district attorney. Charles M. Hay, St. Louis city counselor, also will speak at the banquet.

A feature of the program this year will be a summary of the work and recommendations of the committee on the administration of justice of

Auto Safety Tests Ordered

By United Press

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 13.—Evanston automobile owners henceforth must subject their cars to semi-annual safety tests at police supervised stations. The city council passed an ordinance to that effect last night, providing fines of from $1 to $200 for violations.

TIMES WORKER SHOT TO DEATH WHILE HUNTING

Killed by Own Shotgun in Accident; City Hunter
Crash Victim.

Funeral preparations were being made today for two Indianapolis victims of the opening of the rabbit hunting season.

The body of Charles H. Haverstick, 29, of 2031 Winter avenue, Indianapolis Times composing room employee, was brought to the Shirley Brothers mortuary today from Brazil, where he died following shotgun wounds while hunting near Putnamville.

Mr. Haverstick, according to hunting companions, was wounded fatally when he attempted to pick up his shotgun. The hammer caught in the dirt and a full charge of shot was discharged into his right side.

Following the accident he was given first aid treatment at the Indiana state farm and died en route to a Brazil hospital.

Mr. Haverstick, a member of the night staff of The Times composing room, was accompanied on the hunting trip by Wendell Nave, 2013 Miller street; Virgil Perkins, 1148 Evison street; Floyd Starkey, 761

Belle View place, and William Jesse, 318 East Seventeenth street, all Times composing room employees.

Mr. Haverstick had been employed since boyhood at the Indianapolis News until he became an employee of The Times.

Burial rites for Mr. Haverstick have not been completed.

Survivors besides the widow, Mrs. Flora Haverstick, are the mother, Mrs. Jessie Haverstick; three brothers, Claude, Walter and James Haverstick, all of Indianapolis, and two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Castetter and Miss Lois Haverstick, both of Indianapolis.

The second victim of the hunting season was Herman J. Pauly, 54, of 333 East Wyoming street, who lost his life when an automobile carrying a hunting party overturned on State Road 43 near Lapland.

Funeral rites for Mr. Pauly will be held at 2 tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Haller, 2182 Madison avenue, a stepdaughter. Burial will be in Washington Park cemetery.

Two hunting companions, Charles R. Hasse, 42, of 590 East Washington street, and Earl Sells, 37, of 339 East Wyoming street, operators of taverns here, were in a critical condition today in a Crawfordsville hospital suffering from internal injuries.

Survivors of Mr. Pauly are the widow, Mrs. Anna Pauly; two daughters, the Misses Maria and Marguerite Pauly, and three stepdaughters, besides Mrs. Haller, the Mrs. Karl Steinecker, Mrs. Wilbur Tacke and Mrs. Harold Rader, all of Indianapolis.

Mr. Pauly had been an employee of the school board.

POLICE SEEKING LONE BANDIT IN HOLDUP SERIES

Trolley Operators and Taxi
Drivers Terrorized by Desperado.

Police today were seeking a young man whose description led them to believe him responsible for several holdups last night which netted him a total of $54.75, a handful of trolley car tokens and one taxicab, later recovered.

The first victim, Arthur Campton, 35, of 2244 Kenwood avenue, operator of a Brookside trackless trolley, said that, at Twentieth and Olney streets, he was confronted by a bandit armed with a nickel-plated revolver. The robber, about 28, dressed in brown trousers, gray coat and cap, forced Mr. Campton from the car and took $23 in cash and his changer from him before telling him to move on.

Others in succession who were robbed by a bandit answering generally the same description were Henry Cook, 58, of 1833 Carrollton avenue, operator of a Central avenue car, who lost $14 in cash and sixty-five tokens; Chester Walton, 34, of 1235 South West street, Union cab driver, who was looted of his cab and $3, and Ward Wolfe, 23, of 719 North Davidson street. Red cab driver, who was robbed of $4.75.

Ruptured Men Get $3.50 Truss Free

Pay No Money—Now or Ever,
for This Truss

Kansas City, Mo.—A newer rupture method developed by a doctor is so successful he offers to give every ruptured man or woman who tries it, a $3.50 truss free. It does away with leg straps, elastic belts, binding springs and harsh pads. After using it, many have reported their ruptures better. Often in a very short time. Others say they no longer need any support. The doctor offers to send his method on 30 days' trial and will send the $3.50 truss free with it. If the method does not help your rupture return it and keep the $3.50 truss for your trouble. If you are ruptured just write Dr. Kaiser, 6230 Koch Bldg., 2906 Main St., Kansas City, Mo., for his trial offer.—Advertisement.
