ROYAL WEDDING STIRS INTEREST OF ALL BRITAIN

Popular Greek Princess Is Busy Shopping and Seeking House.

By United Press

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Princess Marina of Greece, a guest of the king and queen at Buckingham palace, busily superintended today the assembly of her troupe for her wedding Thanksgiving day to the Duke of Kent, King George's youngest son.

In the intervals between her work at the palace, the princess was dashing out on shopping expeditions and looking about for some little nest in which to live after the honeymoon, on the duke's $125,000 a year annuity—something like the one at 5 Belgrave square, which has been suggested as suitable. It has eleven bedrooms, six baths, five reception rooms and an elevator.

The pretty, unassuming princess has become immensely popular with Londoners. Milliners are being asked by thousands of women for copies of the hats she wears—the latest a sailor-like hat with a rolled brim and ostrich feathers stretching from the back to the crown.

Duke Lives Nearby

Princess Marina rises each day at 7 at the palace. The Duke of Kent, who lives at York house, a couple of hundred yards away, is an early visitor each morning.

Workmen are busy decorating the line of march for the three wedding processions which will be part of the Westminster Abbey ceremony—those of the princess, the duke and the king and queen. Even the lamp posts all along the route are being repainted in silver for the occasion.

Princess Marina's old English nurse, Miss Kate Fox, said of her in an interview today:

"I wouldn't say she was very good or very naughty as a child. But she was unusually beautiful and sweet-natured. She is most thrilled at the wedding and talks about it frequently. She will be a happy woman when the celebrations are over and she and the duke can enjoy the peace and quiet of Himley hall on their honeymoon."

Norway's King Arrives

Himley hall, owned by the Earl of Dudley, is at Dudley, Worcester-shire. It is a Queen Anne mansion with eighteen bedrooms.

The princess' bedroom is paneled in white with a canopied bed overlooking the gardens and the principal lake. The duke's is oak paneled, with a simple divan bed.

It is expected that the royal couple will spend Christmas at Sandringham, with the king and queen, in the country, and then will go abroad.

While they are at Himley hall, the honeymooners of their wedding, before they are put on public exhibition, Princess Marina is a movie fan. She has asked that several films be taken to the hall, including several of Mickey Mouse.

King Haakon of Norway was the first of the heads of royal families to come to England for the wedding. He arrived yesterday.

The retiring board members are Russell Wilson, Mrs. Maude Miller and Julian Wetzel. Merle Sidener and Samuel Garrison have two more years to serve. New members are Carl Wilde, Alan W. Boyd and Mrs. Mary D. Ridge. New members to take office in two years are Earl Buchanan and John F. White.

CHUCKER'S CAR NO TAXI.

EDINBURG MAN FINDS

Missing Auto Key Leads to Filing of Variety of Charges.

The Hoosier Playboy, Chuck Wiggins, is free and easy in accommodating friends, but today he found his car key missing although he isn't running a taxi service.

Police say Earl Harvey, 46, Edinburg, tonight the "Chucker's" auto was a taxi, and charge that Harvey had the key of the car in his possession while it was parked in front of 218 North Illinois street.

Police couldn't find the "Chucker," but they took the key from Harvey, they charge, and booked him on charges of drunkenness, resisting an officer, profanity and vagrancy.
