

EIGHT HOOSIERS ARE VICTIMS OF CAR ACCIDENTS

29-Year-Old Mother of 3 Killed in Crash at Peru.

At least eight persons, including the mother of three small children, were killed in automobile accidents in Indiana during the week-end.

Mrs. Delbert Burgard, 29-year-old Peru mother, was killed instantly when she stepped into the path of a car in down-town Peru. The car was driven by John Allman, 26, Peru.

The Marion county accident toll for 1934 was swelled to 118 when three persons met death in auto accidents. John Kramp, 35, died an hour after suffering a fractured skull in an automobile collision; Mrs. Effie Griffings, 66, was killed in another collision of cars and Lester Spangler, 21, was found dead in a west Indianapolis street a few minutes after he had been struck by a hit-and-run motorist.

Two Dead at Kokomo.

Two persons met death at Kokomo. John Combs, 27, was killed instantly when his motorcycle collided with an automobile. A. C. Nicholson died instantly when he was struck by an auto driven by Gerald Oyler, 21, of Burling.

Charles J. Fettinger, 72, Evansville, was crushed to death when a wheel of a heavy truck rolled over his chest.

At Anderson, Mrs. E. C. Fenwick, Daleville, suffered serious injuries when an interurban car in which she was riding struck a truck.

Richard Stover, Indianapolis hospital intern, was in serious condition at a Lebanon hospital after an accident in which he and three companions were crushed when their car turned over into a ditch.

Two Others Injured

Albert Donata, 20, and Ben Mankowski, 21, both of Bloomington, riding with Mr. Stover, also were hurt, but not seriously.

Mrs. A. Beech, 62, Syracuse, was killed almost instantly when struck by an automobile driven by Lewis Scott, 30, also of Syracuse, last night.

James O. Johnson, 43, Indianapolis, was found dead on state road 29, northwest of Shelbyville, a half mile from the place where his automobile had crashed into a utility pole.

THUGS TORTURE WOMEN

Get $35 After Burning Fingers With Matches.

By United Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Two young bandits used torture today to force Mrs. Katherine Nyquist, 30, to reveal the hiding place of $35 in her home. They gained entrance by representing themselves as telegraph company messengers, then burned her fingers with matches until she produced her money. Her husband, a mail carrier, is ill in a hospital.
