These Styles Are Sketched!

1. An unusual color combination forms a new alliance for smartness. Brown, rust and pink. Size 14.
2. Sequins play a glittering role in your night life. Note the unusual effect the tunic gives. Size 20.
3. Don't miff this opportunity to tread the great white way in a pure white crepe with maribou trim. Size 16.
4. Powder blue taffeta for the ingenue of 1934. Sweet and simple—but so very clever. Size 14.
5. Colors come and colors go—but smart women stick to black. Note shirred shoulders and gold clips. Size 18.
6. Unusually effective—raspberry tunic with black skirt. Cord tie and glittering buckle. Size 16½.
7. A hush of admiration greets this “star” with its extravagant use of shining clips, buckles and silver threads.
8. A true picture frock in old gold with all the interest centered at the pocket and neckline. Size 16.
9. Greet the “big boss” in this navy shirtwaist with dainty touches of white lace that's detachable. Size 14.
10. We're talking “Back” and black T strap combined on peacock blue crepe. Size 20.
