WHITE HOUSE GUEST

In spite of protests raised last year, beer and fruit punch again were on the menu at the White House holiday party at which Barbara Cushing (above) of New Haven, Conn., was listed as guest of honor. Miss Cushing has been escorted to a number of Harvard parties by Franklin Roosevelt Jr.

INDIANA LEGION
NOT TO CHANGE
BONUS POLICY

Roosevelt Stand Opposed by Sayer; Fritz Also for Payment.

Members of the Indiana department of the American Legion will continue their efforts to secure the full and immediate payment of the veterans' bonus, despite the opposition of President Roosevelt to such payment at this time. William E. Sayer, Indiana departmental adjutant, announced today.

"The Indiana department of the American Legion as mandated by the unanimous vote at both the state and national conventions will continue its efforts for payment of the adjusted service certificates as a relief and recovery measure," Mr. Sayer declared.

Legion Position Restated

"The President in his statement pertaining to the payment of the certificates has apparently overlooked the fact that the American Legion has recommended payment as a means to further economic recovery and at the same time not to increase the public debt. The resolution passed at the Legion's national convention at Miami, Fla., recommends payment of the certificates as another method of relief.

"If it is true that the expenditure in the United States of two billion dollars represented by veterans' certificates at this time would not stimulate business then the entire Federal recovery program has been futile."

National Commander Frank N. Balgrano Jr. was out of the city and could not be reached for comment.

Bank Head Opposed

The belief that the bonus should be paid also was shared by Adolph Fritz, newly inaugurated City Councilman and secretary of the Indiana State Federation of Labor.

"I believe that since the veterans have been promised full payment of the bonus that this payment should be made," Mr. Fritz said. "I feel that ways and means of making this payment must be devised."

A contrary point of view is held by J. P. Frenzel, president of the Merchants National Bank.

"I have not had time to read the President's message very thoroughly," Mr. Frenzel said, "but I do agree with his contention that the immediate payment of the bonus would do very little to stimulate business. I think the veterans are very unwise in demanding payment at this time although steps should be taken to relieve many ex-soldiers now in distress."

MILK FIRM MUST

PAY GROSS TAX LEVY

Court Ruling Given in Roberts Co. Law Suit.

When a milk company sells direct to consumers, it is a retailer and therefore must pay the 1 per cent gross income tax rate, Superior Judge Russell J. Ryan ruled yesterday.

Decision was given in the case of the Roberts Milk Co., which contended it should pay only one-fourth of 1 per cent, the rate imposed by the law on manufacturers.
