Hornbostel Headed for the Big Town

Hoosier Runner to Join New York A. C.

NEW YORK has reached out to Indiana to gather in new sports talent, according to William A. Dalton, president of the New York Athletic Club. Mr. Dalton says Charles (Powerhouse) Hornbostel of Evansville, Indiana University's great middle distance runner, will move to Gotham shortly, take employment at the Chase National Bank and run on the track team of the N. Y. A. C. in the major indoor meets of 1935.

"The lad is as smart in a business way as he is on the track," Dalton commented the other day, "and I think Chase will be as glad to get him as we are to have him join our team. He is a youngster who belongs in a big city."

That's boy, Charlie, tear 'em up in the big town!

He's Real Globe Trotter

HORNBOSTEL was the second-greatest sensation to the Cunningham-Bonhron duel in New York's last indoor track season. The flashy Hoosier half-miler runs like a full back charges the line.

He was the greatest half-miler in Big Ten history when he ran for Indiana U., was a member of the United States team which invaded the Far East last October. He continued on through Europe after the Far East invasion and only recently returned to his Evansville home.

The lad from the banks of the Ohio, who has run successfully as a quarter-miler, up through the distances to place on the Big Ten championship Indiana cross-country team, was one of the prime favorites with track enthusiasts in New York last winter.

Leads Millrose Vote

THE Hoosier speedster opened the 1934 season with a victory over Gene Venekle and Joe Mangin in the 800-meters at the Brooklyn K. of C. meet.

Officials voted Hornbostel the outstanding athlete in the Millrose meet after he won the 1000-yard run and picked up 15 yards in running a 49-second quarter as anchor on the victorious Indiana relay team.

The vote brought his name to the Redmond Wanamaker International Trophy, an honor first won by Paavo Nurmi in 1925.

Record Performance

SPECTATORS at the A. A. U. national indoor championships last year voted Hornbostel second in importance to Glenn Cunningham, following his 1000-meter triumph and brilliant effort as anchor on Indiana's winning relay.

Outdoors last season, dashing into the stretch with his characteristic head-bobbing, the Hoosier ace ran second to Ben Eastman at Princeton as both broke the world record for the half-mile.

Also, at the Penn relays, Hornbostel helped Indiana to the one and two-mile relay championships one day, and ran Bonhron into the muddy field as anchor on the winning medley sprint relay team.

Local Runner Shines

ANOTHER Hoosier who is gaining collegiate track fame is Frederick Lantz of Indianapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lantz, 5914 Julian-av. Young Lantz is a member of the University of Southern California track team, coached by the famous Dean B. Cromwell. Fred spent part of the holidays at his Indianapolis home. He obtained a Trojan varsity letter in 1934, in the mile run, and also won the U. S. C. cross-country event last fall.

Lantz captured the mile event in the Indiana state high school meet in 1932 and holds the Arsenal Technical High School mile record. He will compete this spring for U. S. C. in meets with California University, Stanford, Occidental College, San Francisco University and U. C. L. A.

Brooklyn Disappointed

THE Brooklyn Dodgers still are grumbling over their failure to land Outfielder Vernon Washington, the star slugger of the Indianapolis club last year. The successor of Len Koenecoe, former Hoosier with the Dodgers, led the Flatbush officials to make a gallant effort to obtain Washington, but the Chicago White Sox gained the inside track by having more players and cash to send to Indianapolis in the deal for the Texas fence buster.

Brooklyn agents declare the Sox sent $20,000 in cash to Indianapolis along with players Phil Gallivan, pitcher, and Billy Sullivan, infielder. Sullivan was traded to St. Paul by the Indians on the same day that the Washington sale to Indianapolis was announced.

Sullivan claims the world's record of having his name on the rosters of four different clubs on the same day. He was recalled from Milwaukee by the White Sox, transferred to Indianapolis and then assigned to St. Paul. Milwaukee to Chicago to Indianapolis to St. Paul represents real traveling. Sullivan declares, in fact, half a league.

Shepherd in Brilliant Run

Shepherd started the East on its way with a 39-yard sprint that saw him break away four times from tacklers to turn in a touchdown in the third period. The try for point failed. In the fourth-quarter Minnis threw a high pass over the goal line. Joe Bogans of College outleaped the taller Western defenders, and scored. Weinstock of Pitt converted.

Don Veller of Indiana University saw action in the Eastern back field during part of the fourth quarter and returned two punts for a total of eighteen yards. Duane Purvis, Purdue, was unable to attend the game because of a knee injury.

Bucknell in Easy Orange Bowl Win

By United Press MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 2.—Bucknell University's Bisons, playing under adverse conditions, swamped a lighter University of Miami team, 26 to 0, in the first annual Orange Bowl football game before 12,000 here yesterday. The game was played with the temperature in the 70s.

A spectacular running attack gave the Pennsylvanians three of their four touchdowns, the fourth coming on a forward pass. The warm weather failed to bother Bucknell, while Miami appeared listless and dull.

A shoot-off was necessitated in the Class A event at the Indianapolis Skeet Club yesterday, with L. S. Pratt defeating Fred Holliday, 24 to 19, in an extra 25 targets. Each scored 43 hits out of 50 in the regular round.

West Downs Eastern Grid Squad, 19-13

Cotton Warburton Shines in All-Star Encounter on Coast.

By United Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Every thrill in the football book was unwrapped before 65,000 fans yesterday when the West all-stars defeated the East, 19 to 13, in the tenth annual Shriners' Hospital charity game.

It was a game in which brilliant individual feats overshadowed team play and in which the smallest player on the field, 147-pound Cotton Warburton of the West, was the big hero.

The West scored its touchdowns on a blocked kick, a 71-yard run by Warburton, and a recovery of a blocked forward pass. The East counted on a long run by Bill Shepherd, highest scorer in the nation in 1934, and another miraculous catch of a forward pass.

West Scores Early

The game was only two minutes old when Ray Fuqua of Southern Methodist blocked an East punt. Jim Barber, University of San Francisco, picked up the ball and ran 17 yards for a touchdown. The West failed to convert.

A punt brought the East grief a second time in the same quarter. Miller Munjas of Pitt quick-kicked to Warburton on the West 29 and the cotton-topped speedster raced straight down field, ducking under the arms of opposing tacklers, for the second touchdown. Again the try for point failed.

The West picked up its final score in the second period when Sobredo of Santa Clara threw a 20-yard pass intended for Fuqua. An Eastern back deflected the ball and Cal Clemens, U. S. C. back, caught it and stepped one yard across the goal line. This time Fuqua converted.
