GROCERY CLERK KNIFED, BEATEN BY HOLDUP PAIR

Negro Robbers Get $75.06; Miss $220 Also Carried by Victim.

Police today were most anxious to find two Negro bandits, more violent than thorough, who last night stabbed and slugged Richard Miller, 25-year-old grocery delivery clerk, and robbed him of $75.06, overlooking $220 more he had in his pockets.

When he slowed his truck to turn from 21st-st into an alley between Delaware and Alabama-sts, the two bandits jumped on to the running board, Mr. Miller told police, and demanded the money he had in his collection satchel.

When he laughed incredulously, one of the men stabbed him with a knife. Mr. Miller stopped the truck and got out. The other beat him on the head with a club. They took the collection satchel, but did not search him. He had in his pockets $220, which he had withdrawn from a bank and was taking to the store.

Mr. Miller lives at 1942 Alabama-st and is employed by the P. O. Power Grocery, 2147 N. Talbot-st. He was sent to City Hospital.

Using nicely laundered handkerchiefs as masks, three gunmen held up the Lux Laundry, 5301 Winthrop-av, last night, and escaped with an amount of money that Tony Lux, president, said he could not estimate. Present during the holdup besides the three gunmen were Mr. Lux and James D. Craig, 28, of 4842 1/2 College-av, a clerk, Corville Garity of 1985 N. Tacoma-av, manager of the A. & P. store at 1326 N. Olney-st, was robbed of $20 last night by a bandit who escaped.

CHANGES SOUGHT IN CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Vanderburg County Official Urges Move to Aid Prosecution.

A change in the Indiana criminal code to eliminate the necessity of the state indorsing on indictments and affidavits the names of its witnesses was urged here yesterday by E. H. Meyer, Evansville, Vanderburg County prosecutor, at a meeting of the Association of Prosecuting Attorneys of Indiana in the Claypool.

Mr. Meyer pointed out that no similar display of potential trial witnesses was required of the defense in criminal actions and added that elimination of the practice would go far to eliminate coercion or intimidation of state's witnesses.

Abolition of the office of county coroner, with homicide investigations the duty of the county prosecutor, also was suggested by Mr. Meyer.
