

BOARD NAMED TO MAP STATE TAX REVISIONS

Five Democratic Senators,
Five Representatives
Selected.

The task of mapping revisions in the state tax laws to be made at the special session of the Indiana Legislature next summer was placed in the hands of a special legislative committee today.

The committee, composed of five members from each House, was authorized in a joint resolution adopted by the Assembly on its closing day this week.

Membership of the committee was completed today when Lieut. Gov. M. Clifford Townsend named five Senators, all Democrats. They are Thurman A. Gotteschal, Berne; Walter S. Vermillion, Anderson; Floyd V. Hemmer, Huntingburg; Charles Koslens, Terre Haute, and Hubert Wickens, Greensburg.

The House members named by Speaker Edward H. Stein, Bloomfield, are Frank G. Thompson, Bluffton; Fred Barrett, Indianapolis; Hardin S. Linke, Columbus, and Lloyd Griffith, Huntington, all Democrats, and Joseph A. Andrew, Lafayette, Republican.

The joint committee will draft bills revising the gross income tax and study a proposed consumers' tax. Receipts from the latter tax, passage of which depends on congressional action on an old-age pension plan, would be used to finance the state social security program.

Members of the committee are Senators Fred Eichorn, Gary, and Walter S. Chambers, Newcastle, Democrats, and Will Brown, Hebron, Republican.

ROTARY HEARS TALK ON MEXICAN REFORM

Evansville College Chief Tells of Recent Visit.

Mexico was described as a land in the throes of a great social change by Dr. Earl E. Harper, Evansville College president, at the Rotary Club meeting in the Claypool yesterday.

Dr. Harper, who recently returned from a two-months motor trip through Mexico, discussed the country and its customs for the benefit of the club members who will go to Mexico City for the convention of Rotary International in June.

He was introduced by Theodore E. (Pop) Myers, vice president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Corp., who discussed the speed trials of Sir Malcolm Campbell in his Bluebird at Daytona Beach, Fla., at which Mr. Myers acted as referee.

KNITTING TAKEN; 2 HELD

$4 Also Among Loot Stolen From City Home, Police Are Advised.

Two men were arrested last night and charged with "tending to some one else's knitting."

They are Lawrence Kirsch, 25, of 810 Wetherby, and Robert George, 28, who gave his address as the Roosevelt Hotel. They were said by police to have been leaving the home of Louis Smith, 5735 Broadway Terrace, after it had been looted of a basket of knitting and $4.
