By Times Special
CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 9.—More than 200 scientists from Indiana schools and colleges are expected to attend the annual fall meeting of the Indiana Academy of Science at Crawfordsville, Nov. 7 to 9. Dr. Will Scott, Indiana University professor and academy president, announced today.

Entertainment planned for the three-day meeting will include visits to the homesteads of Gen. Lew Wallace and Henry Lane. Convention business sessions will be held at Wabash College.

Program details are being supervised by Prof. A. R. Bechtel, Wabash, with the assistance of the following academy officers: Dr. W. E. Edington, De Pauw, vice president; Dr. Ray C. Friesner, Butler;

Sucked In

By Times Special
NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 9.—Two Missourians, justifying their "show me" heritage, yesterday showed local police a thing or two.

Picked up for questioning because they were strangers, the pair soon convinced local bluecoats they were legitimate vacuum cleaner salesmen, and well qualified. So well, in fact, that they sold cleaners to both Chief Edward H. Meyer and Patman Charles Schindler.

secretary; Dr. W. F. Morgan, treasurer; Dr. Paul Weatherway, Indiana, editor, and T. R. Johnston, Purdue, press secretary.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH

Alleged Hit-Run Driver Hunted After Taxi-Auto Collision.

Mrs. Eva Jones, 38, of 2017 Hoyt-av, received a shoulder injury early today when the taxicab in which she was riding with her husband, P. B. Jones, was struck by a hit-and-run car at Fletcher-av and Noble-st. Driver of the hit-and-run car refused to show his driver's license or certificate of title and drove away after the accident, police were told.

OLEO'S GAINS CAUSE WORRY FOR MILK MEN

Sales Increase Over Butter Declared Cause of Serious Problems.

Increased sales of oleomargarine over butter for the first eight months of 1935 present a serious situation to milk producers, Charles W. Holman, Washington, D. C., said today.

Mr. Holman discussed the problem with delegates to the National Co-operative Milk Producers Federation convention, which opened this morning in the Claypool.

"A million and a half farmers who produce butterfat and a million others who produce milk are directly affected by the situation," Mr. Holman said.

The convention represents 350,000 farmer members, who annually market nearly a quarter of a billion pounds of butter, and supply milk to the principal cities of the United States.
