

EARL CARROLL'S POPULAR VANITIES COMING TO ENGLISH'S

1936 Edition of Broadway Musical Comedy Is Booked for Two-Day Showing Here

Tentative Dates Dec. 27 and 28, Manager Burke Announces; Ethel Barrymore Agrees to Extra Performance During City Visit.

With the announcement today that Earl Carroll's Vanities are to be seen at English's Theater Dec. 27 and 28, prospects for the legitimate season brightened considerably.

Vincent Burke, English manager, said the date for the show is tentative, but that the booking was definite. Production on this year's edition of the "Vanities" already has begun. Mr. Carroll supervised the selection of chorus and show girls for the new show from a field of 3500 last week in New York. At least two Broadway comedians will be with the show, Mr. Burke said.

Because of the overflow response by mail orders for tickets to see Ethel Barrymore in "The Constant Wife" Thursday and Friday at English's, the reigning lady of the stage has consented to give an extra performance Friday afternoon. Tickets for the special matinee are on sale now. Mr. Burke said the response to Mrs. Barrymore's booking this year is the greatest in five years.

The entire Gilbert and Sullivan repertoire of the Civic Light Opera Co. will be presented in Indianapolis Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and 2 according to word received from the troupe today. "The Mikado" will be presented the first night; "Yeoman of the Guard" Nov. 1; "Pinafore" and "Trial by Jury" at the Saturday matinee, and "Pirates of Penzance" at night.

Beery to Appear With French Star

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 12.—Wallace Beery, having cut short his vacation in New York, has returned to Hollywood, where work will begin immediately on "A Message to Garcia." John Ford will direct. The picture will introduce to American audiences Simone, French stage and screen star, who will take the leading feminine role opposite Mr. Beery.

Fate Plays Trick While at college at Grinnell, Ia., Gary Cooper was turned down when he tried to join the college dramatic group. He was told that he could never hope to be an actor.

Funsters Seen at Circle Screen

Burns and Allen

The two "nit-wits" of the radio and screen, George Burns and Gracie Allen, are among the stars appearing in "The Big Broadcast of 1936," now at the Circle Theater.

Lucrezia Bori, to Sing Here Oct. 21, Collects Fans as Hobby

Avoids Use of Prized Bits on Stage Since Destruction Wrought by Temperamental Tenor.

Lucrezia Bori likes fans. Well, you say, what artist doesn't? But the kind of fans Miss Bori collects are the ones you wave at yourself to keep cool, either physically or mentally.

Miss Bori, who is to sing at English's Theater under the sponsorship of Martens Concerts, Oct. 21, has collected fans all her life. For a long time she carried expensive and rare ones on the stage when she sang opera. An over-enthusiastic tenor in Buenos Aires put a stop to that.

It was in the second act of the opera and the music was waxing emotional. The script called for a fight between Miss Bori and the temperamental tenor. In the fight, he became so realistic that he grabbed Miss Bori's fan and broke it into bits.

After that, Miss Bori never carried a good fan on the stage. Her most valued possession is a gold and mother-of-pearl fan which the Empress Eugenie gave her. The sticks of the fan are of pearl embedded with golden Third Empire emblems, and the mount is decorated with a series of hand-painted court scenes with tiny ivory miniatures set between them.

Old and new Spanish fans, French fans, tiny and reminiscent of Versailles, and small brown, green and purple Victorian fans, are among her collection. Miss Bori also owns several Oriental fans of antique lacquer set with semi-precious jewels. She says she always likes to carry a fan when she broadcasts, not for beauty's sake, but just "to have something to do with my hands."

Players to Mark 10th Birthday

Celebration to Be Held in Connection With Drama Monday.

The Sutherland Presbyterian Church Players, pioneer play-producing group, is to celebrate its tenth anniversary with ceremonies at the opening of the first new season play, "Skidding," Monday night.

A lively comedy, the play is to be presented Monday and Tuesday at Church theater, 28th-st and Guilford-av. C. Norman Green, dean of the Sutherland group, has been the director. Mrs. Green designed the costumes and sets. Guest speakers are to include church officials and representatives of the press.

Cast Announced
In the cast are to be Fannie K. Fort, James Bowling, Mildred Clark McLandress, Edward Green, Katharine Gibson, Clemon Fledderjohn, Harold Green, Grace Abramson, Emily Yucknat and Mr. Green.

Purposes Explained
The group's primary purpose has been to establish and sustain an active interest in church drama, but other types of plays have been presented.

Another aim has been to present high grade secular plays. Such dramas as "The Gypsy Trail," "Kempy," "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "The Copperhead," "The Swan," "An Enemy of the People," and "Growing Pains," have been produced.

Special productions this year are to be selected from a group including "Another Language," "Justice," "The Music Master," and McFadden's "Double Door," which only recently was released.

Drama Festival Arranged

This year a Drama Festival Nov. 9 is to replace the religious drama contest sponsored by the group for the last six years. The festival is to be organized as a conference to which religious drama enthusiasts from over the state are to be invited. A program of practical instruction to those working with church play groups is being formulated, with lectures, demonstrations and discussions. Prof. Harold Ehrenpferger of Northwestern University speech department is to be a speaker.

It has become a tradition to present "The Rock," a religious play, once each year. This practice has been followed during the 10 years of the organization's existence. It is to be given Feb. 2, 1936, at the church, exactly 10 years after the first performance. As far as possible the same costumes, settings and

The players have given more than 50 performances of "The Rock" during the ten years, Mr. Green said.

Mrs. Green is president of the Sutherland Players, Miss Yucknat, vice president; Sue Tezmann, secretary, and Walter Eichholtz, financial secretary and house manager.

In its sixth year is the Sutherland School of Speech and Drama. Held Monday evenings, the school offers courses in expression, play technique, eurythmics, characterization and make-up.

Miss Stanwick and Husband Separated

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 12.—Barbara Stanwick and Frank Fay have parted and are living in separate homes, it was established today.

The film couple, married since 1928, separated two months ago, but the arrangement was kept secret until today. Although the separation was regarded as permanent, Miss Stanwick is not considering a divorce, friends said.

Bob Crosby Proves His Own Ability

Voice Like Bing's but Style His Own, Audience at Lyric Finds.

BY JOHN W. THOMPSON

If Bob Crosby's name was Smith or Jones he would still be good. Bob's band is a big part of the Lyric stage bill this week. The other big part of the show is Hal Sherman, something new and refreshing in the way of comedians.

With a bad case of sinus infection, contracted during a two-day trip from Austin, Tex., Mr. Crosby who doesn't want to be called Bing's brother, did honor to the family name yesterday at the first show in singing "I'm in the Mood for Love." His voice is like Bing's but his style is his own.

Bob's band is one of the most versatile in show business. Frank Tennille, vocalist, is outstanding in the "You Are My Lucky Star" number. The fan dance comedy sketch, "Heckie Jebees" song skit, and the "Some of These Days" specialty all contribute to the betterment of the show.

Only the complimentary things can be said of Mr. Sherman. He is one of those rare and unexpected individuals who slip on to the stage, lift their comic eyebrows, smirk disconcertingly, laugh heartily, and walk off with the show.

On the Lyric screen is "Two-Fisted," a comedy farce with Lee Tracy and Gail Patrick. Roscoe Karnes and Grace Bradley are also in the cast. The story concerns a talk-talking fight promoter who gets himself and his fighter a job keeping a Fifth-av. topper in physical condition. It's funny, has plenty of action.
