

PROSECUTOR AT JASPER FIGHTS YOUTHS' PLEA

A. R. Stimson to Ask High Court to Uphold Life Sentence.

JASPER, Ind., Nov. 4.—Prosecutor A. R. Stimson announced today he would ask the Indiana Supreme Court to uphold life terms given two 18-year-old boys in DuBois Circuit Court for kidnaping. Circuit Judge John L. Sumner granted the youths, Albert Bouquette, San Pedro, Cal., and Bennie Robinson, transient, new trials Saturday.

The boys already have served one year and 17 days for kidnaping and robbing Cleo Line, Hillman merchant, Sept. 19, 1934. They obtained $7 in the holdup, it is alleged.

Case Reopened Judge Sumner reopened the case by sustaining a writ of coram nobis filed in behalf of the youths by T. Ernest Maholm, Indianapolis criminal lawyer.

Trial on auto banditry charges, carrying a lighter sentence than the life term mandatory for kidnaping, was set for Jan. 15, 1936. Mr. Maholm said he would ask the youths to plead guilty.

Mr. Maholm earlier this year obtained new trials for Maurice Sheridan, 17, and Bascom Ray Jr., 14, who had been sentenced to 99-year terms on kidnaping charges by Judge Sumner.

Judge Sumner upheld Mr. Maholm's motions and allowed the youths to plead guilty to lesser charges.

Life terms for kidnaping were revoked Saturday when Judge John L. Sumner sustained a writ of coram nobis.

They probably will plead guilty to the lesser charge. The youths are here pictured outside Jasper County jail with their attorney, T. Ernest Maholm, Indianapolis, and Arthur Bouquette, father of Albert.
