

SOCIAL SERVICE GROUPS OUTLINE CITY MEETING

Annual Session to Open at Claypool Tomorrow for Three Days.

The forty-fourth annual session of the Indiana State Conference on Social Work and Affiliated Organizations is to open in the Claypool tomorrow night. Dr. Max A. Bahr, Central State Hospital superintendent, who is to preside, is to speak on "Mental Hygiene as a Factor in Social Work," and Dr. Hedy S. Dimock, George Williams College, Chicago, is to speak on "Trends in Group Work."

Thursday's session is to include addresses by Dr. J. Allen Jackson, State Hospital, Danville, Pa., who is to talk on "The Relations of a Mental Hospital to the Social Service Field," and Howard R. Knight, National Conference of Social Work secretary, who is to speak on "Social Work and Politics."

Officers are to be elected Friday afternoon at the annual business meeting, at which Dr. Bahr is to preside. Following a dinner at 6 p.m., Charles Marshall, liaison officer of the Indiana Works Progress Administration, is to explain the state program and an address is to be given by Robert W. Kelso, Institute of Health and Social Sciences, extension division of the University of Michigan.

Division Meetings Arranged

Division meetings are to be held each day, and with leaders of co-operating organizations directing discussions. Affiliated groups include the Indiana Chapter of the American Association of Social Workers, State Association of Boards of Children's Guardians, Indiana Children's Home Association, child welfare committees of the American Legion and the Indiana American Legion Auxiliary, the Indiana Probation Association, State Institution Trustees and Superintendents, State Association of County Poor Asylum Superintendents and Matrons, Indiana Chapters of the American Red Cross, and the Indiana Society for Mental Hygiene.

Division meeting discussions are to include mothers' allowances, mental health, the pre-school child, illegitimacy, and lay participation in social work.

Also offered this year is a series of study courses on questions of policy and technique arising from activities in family service, child welfare, group work, probation and parole.

Membership Limited

Group memberships are to be limited to officers, employees and board members of social welfare agencies and institutions; emergency relief workers, and public officials connected with social work.

The study course committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Marion P. Gallup, Indiana Women's Prison superintendent, includes Amos W. Butler, Indiana Society for Mental Hygiene president-emeritus; L. A. Cortner, Knightstown Soldiers and Sailors' Children's Home superintendent; Donald Du Shane, Bartholomew County Board of Children's Guardians president; F. M. Ireland, De Pauw University sociology professor; and Miss Laura Greely, Indiana Department of Public Welfare clerk.

Officers of the Indiana State Conference on Social Work, in addition to Dr. Bahr, are Wayne Coy, Indiana Department of Public Welfare director, secretary; Miss Greely, assistant secretary; and Murray A. Auerbach, Indiana Tuberculosis Association executive secretary-treasurer.

Cardui

Eased Pain

Cardui is a medicine for such conditions as described below by a lady who used to take it.

"I took Cardui for pain and cramping, also for a run-down condition, and I found it eased the pain and built up my nervous system and helped the weakness," writes Mrs. E. D. Carrell, of Hillsboro, Texas. "I would have nervous spells that would ruin me for my work. I took Cardui and I would get all right. I was never without it when needed."

Functional periodic pain and nervousness often go away when better nourishment has been provided. Cardui relieves certain pains, increases the appetite and improves digestion. If it does not benefit you, consult a physician.—Advertisement.

FAMOUS FLIER IS TO SPEAK AT PURDUE EVENT

Amelia Earhart Is to Take Part in Aeronautical Conference Here.

Times Special
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 5.—The first aeronautical conference of an educational nature, with Amelia Earhart as the principal speaker, is to be held at Purdue University, Nov. 14 and 15.

Speakers, including Col. Frederick L. Martin, commandant at Wright Field, Dayton, O., are scheduled to participate in the two-day discussion, according to Prof. George W. Haskins, aerodynamic department head in the School of Mechanical Engineering.

Prof. Haskins is to open the program with an elementary talk on airplanes. Lieut. Mark Gant, Indiana National Guard air unit at Indianapolis, is to discuss modern aircraft engines. Miss Earhart is to discuss "Problems in Flight" at a noon luncheon.

Afternoon speakers are to include W. E. Savage, Wright Field official; R. W. Wilkin, fuel expert, and Capt. George Goddard, Chanute Field, who is to describe aerial photography and mapping.

C. V. Johnson, South Bend, is to open the next day's program with a discussion of chassis research. Other speakers are to be D. M. Warner, Wright Field materials testing engineer; Maj. P. H. Couch and F. T. McCurdy, Kokomo.

Dr. A. A. Potter is to preside at the concluding dinner when Miss Earhart is to speak on "The Romance of Aviation." A round table discussion is to follow.

Many are expected to remain over Saturday, Nov. 16, when planes are to be displayed at the Purdue airport.

Young G. O. P. to Meet
Members of the West Side Young Republican Club will hear Maurice Robinson, Republican nominee for mayor at Anderson last year, in an address tonight in V. F. W. Hall, King-av and Walnut-st.
