

WOMAN FACES 2-YEAR TERM IN BILL FRAUD

Martha Chandjie Convicted of Conspiracy to Pass Counterfeits.

Martha Chandjie, former Indianapolis tavern operator, will face Federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell Saturday for sentence on a conviction of conspiracy to possess and pass counterfeit money.

She was convicted yesterday before Judge Baltzell by a jury that deliberated less than two hours. The violation carries a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment.

Her bondsman asked to be released as surety and Mrs. Chandjie was remanded to the county jail.

William Bohannon, indicted on five counterfeiting counts, was discharged when the chief government witness, Richard D. Williams, now serving a two-year term at Atlanta on similar charges, refused to testify.

Williams' stand threw the prosecution into confusion and after unsuccessful attempts at direct examination, Val Nolan, United States district attorney, asked that the charges against Bohannon be dismissed.

Cherry and Elizabeth Tucker and Clyde Reynolds and Anna Vance, Negroes, entered guilty pleas on passing or possession of counterfeit money. They will be sentenced Saturday.

Harry Lindsay, 55, Negro, was convicted by Judge Baltzell on a counterfeiting charge this morning and a sentence of 18 months was suspended when a physician testified Lindsay was a victim of progressive paralysis.

DENY REINSTATEMENT TO FORMER POLICEMAN

Safety Board Holds T. J. Gray Beyond Age Limit.

Application of Thomas J. Gray for reinstatement to the Indianapolis police department was denied yesterday by the Safety Board. The board acted on an opinion by Michael B. Reddington, assistant city attorney, who held that Gray, being beyond the age limit of 35, was not eligible.

Gray was one of four policemen involved in a Federal liquor conspiracy case in 1930. Convictions were upset on appeal and subsequently one man was reinstated. Wage settlement was made with two others, but Gray, who had his suit tried in another county, lost.

POLICE LASHED FOR HARASSING S. SIDE YOUTH

Judge Williams Says They Exceeded Authority in Making Arrest.

Indianapolis police today blamed a slight tingling of the ears to a verbal lashing administered yesterday by Superior Court Judge Joseph R. Williams during another court action originating from the "bank night" riot at the Rivoli Theater two weeks ago.

Latest action concerns petition of Raymond Vick, 19, of 933 Spruce-st., asking a restrainer to bar Detective

Vick, arrested on a vagrancy charge by Mr. Corbin during the riot, was held until freed on bond.

Judge Williams observed that "if police officers did not abide by the spirit of the vagrancy act something would happen." The judge did not say what.

"Former convicts should be given a chance," he added.

Vick previously served a robbery term.

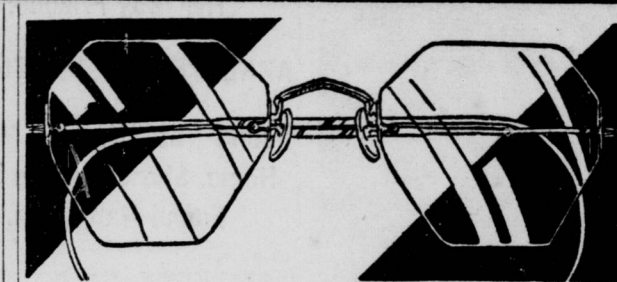

Mansur B. Oakes, insurance executive and Vick's employer, pleaded that he be given a chance to make good.

Vick previously had filed action asking $15,000 damages against Mr. Corbin. Mark G. Margolis, owner of the Rivoli, and others, for false arrest. The case is pending.

TRY A WANT AD IN THE TIMES THEY WILL BRING RESULTS

Mild and yet they Satisfy —how do you do that?

Well, to start with, we take tobacco from our own Southland—mild ripe tobacco with lots of natural flavor but no harshness or bitterness.

THEN AS A SECOND STEP—

We blend this home-grown tobacco with spicy, aromatic Turkish tobaccos from across the seas. These Turkish tobaccos, you may know, have a flavor and fragrance entirely different from our own.

AS A THIRD STEP—

These tobaccos are cross-blended—welded together—the best way we've found to get a more pleasing flavor and a better taste in a cigarette.
