

JAMES SCOTT IS NAMED TO SAFETY BOARD

Democratic Leader Chosen to Take Post Resigned
by McCulloch.

James P. Scott, 4402 Central-av., has been named a member of the Safety Board by Mayor Kern.

He succeeds Dr. Carleton B. McCulloch, Sixth District Works Progress Administration director, who resigned from the board yesterday.

Until recently Mr. Scott was acting Democratic county chairman, a post which has been taken over again by Walter C. Boettcher, City Controller.

Mr. Scott is 38 and is president of the Scott Trucking Co. For many years he has been active in Democratic politics and is chairman of the Twentieth Ward. Earlier this year, Mayor Kern appointed Mr. Scott to the Marion County liquor control board, a position he is to resign next Monday.

He served 18 months in the Navy following his graduation from Technical High School and is a member of the American Legion. He has been in business here 16 years.

Thomas M. Quinn, active in the furniture business a number of years, has been mentioned for the vacancy on the liquor control board.

SATURDAY PROCLAIMED 'FORGET-ME-NOT DAY'

Marks Seventeenth Anniversary of Start of Last Big War Drive. Mayor Kern has proclaimed Saturday 'Forget-Me-Not' Day.

The day marks the seventeenth anniversary of the start of the last big offensive in the Meuse-Argonne forest which was to lead to victory for the allied forces in the World War. Disabled veterans of the World War are to sell forget-me-nots and Mayor Kern appealed to all citizens to be generous.

FLEE IN STOLEN CAR

Three Gunmen Rob Filling Station of $100.

Three gunmen who robbed a Hanover filling station of $100 late yesterday fled in a car stolen from Indianapolis, state police reported today. The car was the property of Norman Moffett, 2154 Wheeler-st., and was reported stolen last Tuesday.

NOTED SOCIAL WORKERS HERE FOR CONFERENCE

Left to Right—Mrs. Ellen Weinfurther, Miss Caroline deF. Penniman, Mrs. Helen Glenn Tyson.

Nationally prominent social workers are among those here today for the Indiana State Conference on Social Work. Three who have leading parts in the three-day program are pictured here. Mrs. Weinfurther, Cincinnati, is director of Hamilton County (O.) public welfare; Miss Penniman, Middletown, Conn., is Long Lane Farm superintendent; Mrs. Tyson, Pittsburgh, Pa., is community work director, Department of Public Welfare, Pennsylvania.

APPOINTED AT HOSPITAL

Miss Edna Mae Endslow Named in Dietetics, Instructional Staff.

Dr. John G. Benson, Methodist Hospital superintendent, has announced appointment of Miss Edna Mae Endslow to the dietetic and instructional staff.

She is a graduate of Washington State College, Spokane and had a year's experience in Indiana University Hospitals.

HICKAM NOMINATED FOR BAR PRESIDENT

Slated to Succeed Wilde in Local Post.

Hubert Hickam, first vice president of the Indianapolis Bar Association, was nominated to succeed Carl Wilde as president of the organization last night in the Columbian Club.

A member of the law firm of Noel, Hickam, Boyd and Armstrong, Mr. Hickam is to be elected at the December meeting unless an opposition candidate is named from the floor.

Other nominees are:

Russell Wilson, first vice president; Taylor Groninger, second vice president; William C. Kern, secretary; Harvey Grabill, treasurer; John A. Royce and Herman K. Kothe, executive committeemen; Maurice E. Tenant, William S. McMaster, Gideon W. Blain and G. R. Redding, admissions committee.

Arthur R. Robinson, former United States Senator, spoke last night.
