

VANNUYS SLAMS LIQUOR AGENTS, FILES PROTEST

Demands 'Harassing' Cease;
Yellowley Gets Reply
From O'Mahoney.

Sharpshooting against deputy collectors accused of establishing a "legal reign of terror" among legitimate Indiana liquor dealers was waged on two fronts today.

In Washington Senator Frederick W. VanNuys announced that he had filed an official protest against the agents' conduct with the Federal Alcohol Control Commission.

In Indianapolis J. F. O'Mahoney, secretary-treasurer of the Indiana State Restaurant Association, Inc., reiterated his charges in replying to E. C. Yellowley, district supervisor, who had denied that his collectors were engaged in any operations except faithful enforcement of the law.

Charges Ignorance of Law

Mr. O'Mahoney charged that collectors themselves were unfamiliar with the law and under the circumstances it was not strange that liquor dealers were not familiar with all its provisions.

Interviewed in Washington Senator VanNuys said:

"This thing has to cease. Legitimate business men must not be harassed."

He also revealed an intention to confer with Treasury Secretary Henry L. Morgenthau, under whose department the FAC functions.

Claims Issue Evaded

In his reply to Mr. Yellowley's letter, Mr. O'Mahoney charges the enforcement chief with evading the issue. Mr. Yellowley had charged that "the only persons talking about terror are the moonshiners and bootleggers."

"As a matter of fact the organizations that I speak for do not know of a single instance where your so-called deputies have apprehended even a single bootlegger," Mr. O'Mahoney said. "They have devoted all of their time in creating a 'reign of terror' among business men of this state who have publicly recorded themselves by purchasing Federal stamps and a state license."

"The only prosecution of bootleggers that we have any knowledge of has been by local officers of the state excise department and deputies working out of the office of the regular representatives of the tax division, Mr. Scanlon."

Recalls Prohibition Days

"By trying to give the impression that the members of the organizations who have protested are common bootleggers you again demonstrate the use and abuse of Federal authority as witnessed in Indiana during prohibition days when the shooting of innocent persons was excused by saying they were 'bootleggers.'

Mr. O'Mahoney also charged that Mr. Yellowley's men now are checking records of wholesale dealers in Indianapolis to detect purchases by posts of the American Legion, Men's Clubs of various churches, fraternal orders and lodges and "even orphans homes" which conduct annual picnics for the purpose of raising charity funds. The purpose, he insists, is to require these organizations to pay penalties and buy Federal tax stamps.

The High Cost Of Free Hot Water

It Costs More to Heat Water With a Furnace Coil.

You Can Save With an Automatic

GAS WATER HEATER

The illusion that the furnace coil supplies free hot water has been disproven in the laboratories as well as in the home.

Tests have shown that coils reduce the capacity of furnaces as much as 20%, resulting in poorly heated rooms.

If one will add the amount of money spent in a period of years for new furnace coil installations, one-fifth of the fuel bill, and the gas bill for heating water during the summer, he will find the cost of automatic gas hot water service much lower.

SMALL SUMS WELCOMED IN ROGERS DRIVE

Emphasis Put on Number of Gifts, Fred Hoke, Chairman, Says.

Apprehension lest potential contributors to the Will Rogers Memorial Fund are hesitant to offer small gifts has been voiced by Fred Hoke, chairman of the Indianapolis committee.

"Contributions of small amounts to the fund are just as welcome as large sums. Our emphasis has been placed on the number of gifts we receive, and not alone their total value," Mr. Hoke asserted.

"It is the pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters received from people who really liked Will Rogers which count so much," he said. "They are just as important, if not more important than the checks for larger amounts. Nobody should feel the slightest embarrassment because his contribution is small."

"This is not a campaign conducted by direct solicitation; it is only a means of providing an opportunity for every one who wishes to give to be able to do so with convenience. A large number of small gifts is desired more than a small number of large gifts."

"Success of the Will Rogers Memorial Fund will rest upon the number of contributions received by the time the campaign closes Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 27, for each gift will represent a material token of tribute from a friend of the great comedian and philosopher who wishes to have a part in a shrine to his memory."

Subscriptions can be made in Indianapolis banks, or in the Chamber of Commerce during the remaining 10 days of the campaign.
