

G. O. P. LEADERS TO CHOOSE CITY FOR CONVENTION

16 Industrialists to Seek Funds for Sustained
New Deal Fight.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Signaling the approach of the real fireworks in the 1936 Presidential campaign, the Republican National Committee has summoned its members to meet here Dec. 16 to choose a national convention city and appointed 16 industrialists, bankers and lawyers to direct the drive for funds to fight the New Deal.

Chairman Henry P. Fletcher followed Republican tradition in making the first move to draft convention plans. The National Democratic organization probably will not act until January.

Headed by William B. Bell, president of the American Cyanamid Co., the Republican finance committee was asked by Fletcher to help him raise money to oppose the "alien doctrines and maladministration of the New Deal."

Hopes for "Fight Sum"

The G. O. P. chairman said he did not "expect to raise a sum which can match the billions of the people's money the Administration is now using in many 'fight sum' purposes," but that he hoped to obtain enough to "defray the legiti-mate expenses of a straight-out fight against the New Deal."

Political observers, scanning the list of appointments, immediately predicted that Fletcher planned a vigorous nation-wide campaign to enlist leading bankers and industrialists in the ranks of those who feel the New Deal has failed and a Republican should out President Roosevelt from the White House on March 4, 1937.

Here's Drive Personnel

These are the men who will assist Bell in the fund-raising drive: Charles B. Goodspeed, assistant treasurer Republican National Committee, Chicago; Charles Francis Adams, Boston, secretary of the Navy in the Hoover Cabinet and former secretary of Union Trust Co. of Boston; Wallace M. Alexander, San Francisco, chairman of board, Montgomery Ward & Co.; William V. Hodges, Denver, member of law firm of Hodges, Wilson & Rogers; J. F. Lincoln, Cleveland, president, Lincoln Electric Co.; Joseph N. Pew Jr., Philadelphia, vice president, Sun Oil Co.; Herbert L. Pratt, New York City, member of the firm of Charles Pratt & Co., former chairman of board of Standard Oil Co. of New York; A. W. Robertson, Pittsburgh, chairman of board Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co.; Edward L. Ryerson, Chicago, president, Joseph T. Ryerson & Son; Alfred L.

ETHIOPIAN, LOCAL RESIDENT, TO TALK ON WAR

Representatives from Indiana colleges are to hear Gabra Sadik Gachaw, Indianapolis, one of two native Ethiopians in this country, at Crowsley Auditorium, Central Library, Nov. 29 at 8. Mr. Gachaw, shown here in front of the library with Luther L. Dickerson, librarian, and Martin M. Clinton, is to appear under auspices of the Cosmopolitan Club. He was born and educated in Addis Ababa.

His father was a priest of the Coptic Church and his grandfather was killed in the battle of Aduwa in 1896. In his talk, Mr.
Gachaw is to review the progress of the undeclared war between his country and Italy. He will be introduced by Mr. Clinton.

Shapleigh, St. Louis, chairman of board, Shapleigh Hardware Co.; Henry D. Sharpe, Providence, R. I., treasurer, Brown & Sharpe Manufacturing Co.; Silas H. Strawn, Chicago, member of the law firm of Winston, Strawn & Shaw; Robert H. Thayer, New York City, member of the law firm of Donovan, Leisure, Newton & Lumbard, and Ernest T.
Weir, Pittsburgh, chairman of board, National Steel Corp.

Nation's Future Menaced

"Realizing the American system is threatened and that the future of the country is seriously menaced, they have agreed to put their shoulders to the wheel," Fletcher said of his committee. "These men are strong in the conviction the Republican party is the only political organization to whose support there must be rallied those of the North and of the South, of the East and of the West—of whatever political faith—in short, those throughout the nation who believe in preserving the American system."

There is no definite indication where either national convention will be held. Chicago is bidding for both. Kansas City would like one or the other. Atlantic City is a quadrant bidder. The belief exists both parties would prefer to meet in the Middle West where the real fighting will occur.

In addition to choosing a convention site, the Republican National Committee will devote part of its December meeting to plans for the apportionment of delegates and the manner of their selection.

IVY DAY FETE AT MANUAL IS SENIORS' PLAN

Traditional Semi-Holiday Observed by Class of January.

January seniors of Manual Training High School this afternoon will observe Ivy Day, a traditional semi-holiday, in the auditorium and girls' gym.

After a procession of the graduating class into the auditorium, 16 senior students are to present "The Growth of the Ivy Vine," a sketch which will reveal the significance of the ivy vine. Parts are to be taken by Wilbur Elliott, John Cristina, Russell Burger, Okle Hightower, Robert Specker, Gladys Brown and Ruth Messersmith. Included is a rhythmic dance depicting the growth of the ivy through the various seasons. The dancers, who will be dressed in long flowing gowns, are Myrtle Roubush, Maxine Merrick, Rosemary Morris, Marjorie Cronin, Erma Elkins, Vernie Warrenburg, Gladine Stringer, Lena George and Grace Kattau.

John Cristina, January class leader, will fulfill the annual custom of presenting the silver trowel from one senior president to the other when he hands the symbolic implement to Jack Hiatt, June seniors' president.
