

NAME LEADERS FOR CAMPAIGN ON HOUSING ACT

Two Division Heads Picked for 'Education' Drive in Indiana.

Two division heads for a campaign to educate Indiana residents in the benefits of the national housing act were appointed yesterday by R. Earl Peters, state director for the Federal Housing Administration.

E. G. Ralston, executive vice president of the Indianapolis Power and Light Co., was named men's division chairman and Mrs. Paul T. Hurt, vice chairman of the home department of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, is to head the women's division.

Appointments Announced

The appointments came after a series of conferences on launching an insured mortgage clinic. Mr. Peters and Thomas McConnell, assistant Indiana director, met with a group of Washington experts including L. Karl Gilchrist, special assistant to the national administrator; David Casen, staff executive; Reese Wolfe, special financial representative; and Miss Helen McGrath, head of the women's division.

Mr. Peters said the Indiana campaign will mean use of the entire Indiana staff in an effort to surpass figures achieved in cities of similar size. The campaign will have both local and Washington speakers. They will explain the act and details of the mortgage clinic tentatively scheduled for Dec. 4 to 7, possibly on the ground floor of a Monument Circle building.

A mass meeting will be held at 3 Dec. 3 at the Claypool for discussion of the clinic.

HOLC Chiefs Meet

Servicing problems connected with collection of Home Owners Loan Corp. loans are to be discussed today at a meeting of Indiana HOLC managers in Detroit.

E. Kirk McKinney, Indiana manager, will go to Detroit from Washington where he has been in conference with Administration leaders for several days.

Other HOLC leaders who will attend the meeting are George T. Wheldon, Indianapolis manager; J.

FHA OFFICIALS IN CITY TO CONDUCT 'CLINIC' FOR HOME OWNERS

In Indianapolis today are mortgage experts of the Federal Housing Administration who are conducting a "clinic" for the benefit of home owners.

Left to right seated above are David Casen, staff executive, Washington; R. Earl Peters, Indiana state director; Miss Helen K. McGrath, women's division, Washington, and standing, left to right, are Tom McConnell, Indiana association director, and Reese Wolfe, special financial representative, Washington.

STALEMATE REACHED IN BRAZIL COAL FIELD

Shaft Mine Operators and Union Chiefs Can't Get Together.

By United Press
BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 26.—Negotiations between shaft mine operators and United Mine Workers of Dis-

Clinn Ellyson, Hammond manager; William A. Butler, South Bend manager; Stephen R. Fleming, Fort Wayne manager; Lawrence Hanley, Richmond manager; Leonard Rauscher, Evansville manager; Walter Maehling, Terre Haute manager; Wendell M. Hicks, Indianapolis, state servicing manager; and Robert L. Mason, state conditioning manager.

OVERCOAT SPRINTER DEFEATS PROFESSOR

Non-Matriculator Wins All Bets in Butler Contest.

Prof. Ray Friesner of the Butler University botany department looked in Room 343 yesterday afternoon and saw a man who hadn't even matriculated and so he asked what he was doing there.

The man, who had picked up an overcoat that didn't belong to him, replied that he was "looking for D. C. Stephenson." Prof. Friesner made a snap decision that something was amiss and went to call for help.

Out the door the man ran, and Prof. Friesner was after him. They ran through several alleys but the prowler escaped.

ORDERS CANOPY REPAIR

Works Board Takes Action on Commission Row Structures.

The Works Board, has authorized William Hurd, building commissioner, and Louis Brandt, a member, to investigate and order necessary repairs to canopies on commission row, Maryland and S. Delaware-sts. Many of the canopies are in a dangerous condition, the board was told.

BENEFIT GROUPS TO END SESSION WITH PAGEANT

86 Lodges Represented at Fraternal Congress Here Today.

The thirty-seventh annual session of the Indiana Fraternal Congress, composed of representatives of 86 fraternal benefit organizations, was to end tonight with a pageant in Tomlinson Hall.

Degree teams from several lodges were to take part in the affair. Several hundred persons are expected to attend.

This afternoon the delegates are to elect officers for the coming year and the resolutions committee is to report. Addresses by fraternal executives on technical subjects occupied the morning sessions, attended by about 75 persons.

The feature of the afternoon program was to be an address on "Fraternalism and Legislation" by Martin Miller, Indiana representative of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

FHA CLINIC INDORSED BY CENTRAL LABOR

State Labor Officials Meet With Washington Representative.

The Central Labor Union indorsed plans for a Federal Housing Administration clinic here Dec. 3, at a meeting last night in Plumbers Hall. Speakers included Reese Wolfe, FHA representative from Washington; James R. Donovan, district No. 6 regional labor adviser of WPA; Carl Mullen, Hammond, president-elect of the Indiana State Federation of Labor; Charles Lutz, state representative from Marion County, and Miss Mary Garner, State Federation of Labor vice president.

LINTON GRAND JURY MAY PROBE DEATHS

Suspected Poison Death and Murder Has Coroner's Attention.

By United Press
LINTON, Ind., Nov. 26.—Grand jury investigation of the deaths of John R. Hill, Owensburg, and Ves Gill, Linton, 72-year-old retired mine superintendent, may be asked this week by Coroner George Porter.

Hill died Nov. 15, presumably from poisoned flour contained in biscuits he ate. Gill's battered body was found stuffed into a sewer outlet here Sunday.

Hill's body has been exhumed and the stomach sent to Dr. R. N. Harger, Indianapolis, state toxicologist, for analysis. If the examination reveals poison, the case will be turned over to the grand jury.

EMERGENCY TAX CLAUSE ATTACK HIT BY MAYOR

Would Cripple Indiana Cities, Kern Tells League.

Eradication of the emergency clause in the $1.50 tax law will cripple Indiana cities members of the Indiana Municipal League were told yesterday by Mayor Kern at a meeting of the league's executive committee at the Claypool.

The mayor's comment was made during a discussion of the possibility of a special session of the General Assembly.

County and state taxation of municipally owned plants and the Federal income tax on town utilities were discussed.

ENTICING PERMANENTS
Includes Hair Cut, Shampoo, Rinse, Blow Dry, and Set. All for 75c.
Gray, dead, bleached hair specialists. Mae Murray or Shirley Temple. $1.00
$2 Value Permanent, 2 complete, $3.00
$3 Value Permanent, 2 complete, $3.00
Facial and Arch, Bath for 25c
Hair Cut, Shampoo, Finger Wave, all 3 for 25c
NO APPOINTMENT NECESSARY
ROYAL BEAUTY ACADEMY
401 Roosevelt Bldg., Rf. 6784
Illinois at Washington

INDIANA'S BEST SHOE STORE

SALE

Queen Quality Footwear

An Unequaled Presentation of Nationally Famous Style and Comfort Shoes Sold Regularly at $6.50—$7.50 and $8.75—Now Offered While 678 Pairs Last at

All Sizes and Widths $5.35

Gordon and Marott Ringless Hose, 79c and Up Values, Now 59c

BUY SHOES AT A SHOE STORE

Marott's Family Shoe Store

MORE COMFORTABLE BECAUSE OF THE V-8 ENGINE

V-8 PERFORMANCE is one luxury of millionaires that millions now enjoy—thanks to Ford engineering. But the Ford Motor Company was not satisfied to stop there. It insisted that every feature of the Ford car must be in keeping with V-8 engine quality—comfort included.

See how successfully this purpose has been carried out. Examine and drive the Ford V-8 for 1936. You'll agree that not one luxury-class feature has been overlooked. In every detail the new Ford measures up to the fine-car quality of its engine.

$510 F. O. B. Detroit. Standard accessory group, including bumpers and up and spare tire, extra. All body types have Safety Glass throughout at no additional cost. Convenient terms through Universal Credit Co.

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS

Only One Car Gives You V-8 Luxury at Low Cost

FORD V-8 for 1936.

HIS POCKETBOOK CALLED A HALT!

"Our Entertaining Expenses Were Sky High,"
Says Charles Drury, 27 Laird Rd., Medford, Mass.

"But low price whiskey just didn't go over with our friends," continues Mr. Drury. "I was stumped—until I was tipped off to Old Drum. I tried it, and believe me OLD DRUM WAS A LIFE-SAVER! It brings the high quality my taste demands—and the low price my means allow. I'm sticking to Old Drum and saving plenty!"

HOW NATION VOTED!

● GUESSES $1.50 A PT.
"As smooth and palatable as any I've ever tasted."—R. H. Fisher, Pittsburgh, Penna.

HAS $1.70 TASTE
H. W. Hall, Jr., Sacramento, California, over-estimates Old Drum's price by big margin.

● ESTIMATES $1.50 PT.
"A very mellow flavor—a very good product," declares L. S. Brown, Springfield, Illinois.

VOTES $1.25 PT.
Old Drum is "a smooth and pleasant drink," states Harold Barry, New York City.

AMERICA MARVELS! SAYS SENSATIONAL WHISKEY WORTH AT LEAST 40% MORE!

Old Drum taste, quality, value acclaimed by thousands—Hailed as greatest whiskey "buy" on the market today!

Straight across the country, Old Drum is revolutionizing old notions of whiskey value—bringing to American drinkers a whiskey so much better that hundreds guessed its price on an average of 40% too high in nationwide poll of palates!

Maryland Distillery's Creed
"It should be the responsibility of every legitimate distiller to produce whiskeys so perfect, at a price so low, that the public can have no reason for patronizing illegal distillers who defraud our National, State and Local Governments of their just revenues."

Avail yourself of this sensible whiskey that sells at a "cents-ible" price . . . that's distilled from the same premium grain used for costliest whiskeys. Ask for Old Drum. Compare it with any "straight" or "blend" in its price class. Smell the difference. Taste the difference. Pocket the difference. You can't beat Old Drum!

Smell THE DIFFERENCE
Taste THE DIFFERENCE
Pocket THE DIFFERENCE

Old Drum
BRAND
BLENDED WHISKEY

"You can't beat it"

Distributor: U. S. Liquor Wholesale Co., 39 E. Georgia St. Phone RIley 1121