THE NEW DAY COMES FROM THE EAST

JAPAN'S TRUE RISING SUN CHRISTIANITY RENEWED

THE MEANING OF KAGAWA

(An Editorial from the Memphis Press-Scimitar)

THERE are many people in this country who have left the church. There are children who have been brought up knowing nothing about religion. Their parents, believing the church teaches superstition and hypocrisy, have kept them away from it.

These are often good people, often exceptionally fine citizens. They have taken so little interest in religion that they do not know what has happened to it in recent years.

Something very important has happened to it. The church is practicing its own teachings. Religion formerly was often largely a means by which people sought to save themselves from a hell hereafter.

Today people are seeking to be "saved" in order that they may be cleansed of selfishness and so fit to save civilization in this world today.

Not that they believe less in the hereafter; they believe in it more surely. But they are not willing to wait for death for heaven; they want to bring it to their fellowmen on earth here and now. They demand that industry and politics be governed by the teachings of religion.

Not in fear, but in love; not seeking what they can get out of religion, but what they can put into it for others.

This is a phenomenon found not in one denomination, but in all Christian and Jewish communities, and even in some other faiths.

Religion everywhere is meeting the challenge offered by the needs of the world today.

In no man does this new spirit of religion find better expression than in the frail, ailing body of the Japanese Kagawa, who is on an American tour.

Kagawa practices the teachings of Jesus. He believes that Jesus meant it when He said: "Love ye one another." "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven."

He works day and night to do the will of God. He gives all of his large earnings as a writer and speaker to the poor, except the little that it takes for the simple living of himself, his wife and children.

He has launched "The Kingdom of God Movement" to bring the Kingdom of God, not to some distant sky, but to this troubled earth of 1936.

Those who have stayed away from church will not find any hypocrisy in Kagawa to repel them.

Instead, they will find a terrible sincerity. And some, like the rich young man of the Scriptures, will turn away sorrowful.

For Kagawa, like his Master of 1900 years ago, has some "hard sayings."

"Go, give all thou hast . . ."

Kagawa can say it, because he has done it.

'God' Topic of Science Church

(An Editorial from the Memphis Press-Scimitar)

"God" is to be the Lesson-Sermon subject in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, tomorrow.

The Golden Text is: "Among the gods there is none like unto Thee, O Lord; . . . For Thou art great, and doest wondrous things; Thou art God alone" (Psalms 86:8-10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; . . . And I heard a voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God" (Revelations 21:1-3).

The following passages from the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, also are included: "This testimony of Holy Writ sustains the fact in Science, even the declaration to one human consciousness, that consciousness which God bestows, are spiritual, while to another, the unillumined human mind, the vision is material. . . . Accompanying this scientific consciousness was another revelation, even the declaration from heaven, supreme harmony, that God, the divine principle of harmony, is ever with men, and they are His people. . . . This is Scriptural authority for concluding that such a recognition of being in, and has been, possible to men in this present state of existence—that we can become conscious, here and now, of a cessation of death, sorrow and pain. This is indeed a foretaste of absolute Christian Science. (p. 573).

Cites Present Need for New Men in World

Minister Points to Christ's Power to Rejuvenate Existing Beings.

BY S. GRUNDY FISHER
Minister University Park Christian Church

New Year's Day has just passed. What explains the feeling of release, relief and new interest in life? Down in our hearts we know that things are not so much different from last year. Same old debts, same old problems, same old harassments. Never the less, we do rejoice in the New Year.

Some of us celebrated crazily enough, but some more soberly. All, unless very old in spirit, rejoiced. The explanation is that deep instinct of adventure—the love of surprise, of possibly finding something better than what we have had. New fashions, new books, new houses, new cars, new lands—we love the new.

The Apostle Paul had something better than all these: "If any man is in Christ Jesus, he is a new creature. Old things have passed away; behold they have become new." He knew what the old creature was: Selfish, blind, dying while he lived. But he knew also, that the Gospel of Christ could do for and in a man. He knew himself to be new.

Love Replaced Selfishness

He was new in his motivation. When he came into fellowship with Christ, old and selfish motives, often camouflaged as virtues, were replaced by one great constraint, the love of Christ. He had been zealous for the law, for his nation's existence and glory, and he had let this zeal make him cruel, bigoted, arrogant.

Christ entered his life and he entered into fellowship with Christ, and he became tender, forgiving, compassionate, loving, humble. Old things had passed away, indeed. He was a new creature. He had something new to live for. A new goal called him. And, most wonderful of all, a new power—a power not of himself, making for righteousness—look possession of him.

What he had experienced in his own life, he had seen in others. And what he had seen in others, has been the ever-recurring miracle across the ages. This very New Year's Day we have had in our midst men and women from far sundried lands, testifying to the power of the Christ who made new creatures, and proclaiming their faith that these new men and women will eventually make a new world.

Need Is For New Men

What other hope have we of a world order fit for men and not a pit in which we shall fight and devour one another? New men!

For these thousands of years we have been governed by men who have thought that the interests of their own race, or their own country, or their own religion, or their own power, or their own wealth, or their own glory, or their own pleasure, or their own comfort, or their own convenience, or their own safety, or their own happiness, or their own peace, or their own honor, or their own reputation,
