ORDERED BACK TO JAIL

Former Waveland Postmaster Fails to Pay $522 Fine.

Fred McNutt, former postmaster of Waveland, has been returned to Marion County jail by Federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell to serve 30 days for failure to pay a $522 fine in connection with a charge of embezzling postoffice funds. McNutt had served five months of a six-month sentence in the jail, but was released in November to raise money to pay his fine.

CITY POLICE BOARD FINES 2 RADIO COPS

Claude Reidenbach Is Given 30-Day Suspension.

Radio Patrolman Claude Reidenbach today began serving a 30-day suspension from duty without pay following his trial last night by a police board in the office of Chief Morrissey.

Radio Patrolman Horace Eller also was fined two days pay by the board for neglect of duty.

The board charged Patrolman Reidenbach with being under the influence of liquor while on duty, with conduct unbecoming an officer and neglect of duty.

Charges against him grew out of an accident Jan. 2 when a police car was wrecked at Madison-av and McCarty-st. Radio Patrolman Peter Mause, Reidenbach's companion, was reprimanded by the board and ordered to move his home within the city limits.

Eller was tried because of his alleged failure to arrest a motorist in connection with an accident.

Reidenbach, according to the police board, was one of a number of Indianapolis policemen tried in Federal Court several years ago on charges of liquor conspiracy. He was reinstated to the department after the local court's finding was reversed by the Circuit Court of Appeals.
