CONSTITUTION REFORM AIDED BY AAA UPSET

Labor, Farmers, Townsend Group Believed Ready to Urge Change.

BY MAX STERN
Times Special Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Possibility of mass support for a constitutional amendment appeared to be growing today. It was learned that three big groups are discussing plans to protect Congress' right to legislate in their behalf. These are:

1. The American Federation of Labor, 4,000,000 strong. Its executive council is to meet at Miami Jan. 15 to make definite plans to launch an amendment.

2. Farm groups. On Jan. 16 and 17 the national agricultural conference, representing 2,500,000 farmers, is to be held here. This group includes the American Farm Bureau Federation, National Co-Operative Council, National Grain Corp. and Farm Editors.

The conference is to discuss proposed AAA substitutes and possible co-operation with labor in an amendment crusade.

3. The Townsend Planners. Dr. F. E. Townsend said today he would support an amendment "if this appeared to be the only way" to protect his social security plans. He claims a Townsend Club membership of 9,000,000.

Claims Need for Amendment
President William Green of the A. F. of L. said today that Monday's Supreme Court decision "points most emphatically to the necessity of amending the Constitution."

At the A. F. of L. convention in October Mr. Green urged union labor to sponsor an amendment broadening and clarifying Congress' right to regulate interstate industry.

The Schechter decision, he said, "placed the immediate welfare and the future destiny of the entire nation under the dead hand of obsolete judicial dogma." The Federation voted to support an amendment, but left details to the executive council.

"The latest decision is disquieting," Mr. Green said. "I still hope the court will make a more liberal interpretation of the welfare clause with regard to the Guiffey, Wagner Labor, Social Security and other acts in which we are interested. But we are convinced that the Constitution must be amended."

The form the A. F. of L. amendment will take is undecided but Mr. Green offered the following draft as a tentative suggestion:

TENNESSEE
Martin J. Condon, Memphis, president, American Snuff Co., $63,031.

J. Werthen, Nashville, president, Werthen Bag Corp., $64,670.

TEXAS
A. G. Carter, Fort Worth, president, Carter Publications, Inc., $50,000.

Mills Bennett, Houston, president, Mills Bennett Production Co., $60,000.

S. M. Sweeney, San Antonio, president, Sweeney and Co., Inc., $50,000.

VIRGINIA
K. R. Edwards, Lexington, vice president, J. P. Taylor Co., Inc., $54,374.

WISCONSIN
C. O. Wambig, president, Globe Union Mfg. Co., Milwaukee, $60,000.

R. A. Spencer, Racine, president, Western Printing and Lithographing Co., $57,206.

Jackson Dinners Tonight to Open Democrats' '36 Fight, New Deal Defense

Hoosiers Await Address by President; Many Dinners Scheduled.

Roosevelt Speech at Washington Banquet to Be Broadcast.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Democrats throughout the nation meet tonight to feast at Jackson Day dinners and open their 1936 political campaign with speeches defending the New Deal.

A number of ward and township dinners will be held in Marion County. The largest, at which Judge Walter E. Treasurer, of the Indiana Supreme Court, will speak, is to be at the Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church. More than 600 persons are expected.

The outstanding state meeting tonight will be at Marion, home town of Lieut. Gov. M. Clifford Townsend, where the Lieutenant Governor is expected to announce his candidacy for the nomination for Governor.

Gov. McNutt is en route to Austin, Tex., at the request of the Democratic National Committee, to make the Jackson Day address there. Omer S. Jackson, state chairman, has left for Washington to attend the Jackson Day dinner there.

Senators Frederick Van Nuys and Sherman Minton and their wives, and Mrs. Samuel Ralston, national committeewoman, are the guests at the Washington dinner, where Thomas Taggart, national committeeman.

One of the larger Marion County meetings will be at the Athenaeum at the joint dinner of the Eleventh, Eighth and Third Wards. Criminal Judge Frank P. Baker is the scheduled speaker.

G. O. P. CLUB TO MEET
New Officers of Warren Group to Have Charge of Session.

First meeting this year of the Warren Township Republican Club will be held tonight at 8 at the home of John E. Shearer, 21st and Ritter-av. New officers who will take charge of the meeting are John R. Lewis, president; Mrs. Essie Perry, first vice president; Donald Dowles, second vice president; H. H. Conrad, secretary, and Ed Huntington, treasurer.

this article; and the fourteenth amendment shall not be construed to impose any substantive limitations upon the exercise of the legislative power of the several states.

Plans for farm groups are still formative. Chester Gray of the Farm Bureau Federation said, however, that an amendment would be considered seriously.

Dr. Townsend admitted the AAA decision might affect his pension plan. He suggested the plan might be changed to permit the states to administer the pensions. If, after consultation with his counsel, he decides a constitutional amendment is necessary, he said his 6000 clubs would be swung behind such a movement.

Senator Carey (R. Wyo.), issued a statement declaring the AAA decision ruled the Townsend plan out as unconstitutional.

Proposal Offered
"The Congress shall have the power to enact laws for the social and economic welfare of the nation; and the fifth amendment shall not be construed to impose any substantive limitations upon the exercise of this power. Nothing herein shall be construed to impair the legislative power of the several states with respect to the subject matter hereof, except insofar as the exercise of such powers by a state may be in conflict with legislation enacted by the Congress pursuant to

Farley Criticized Again
The League again criticized Postmaster General James A. Farley, who also is chairman of the Democratic National Committee, for alleged soliciting of government officials to purchase tickets to the dinner.

Mr. Farley caused the invitation to be sent to government officials in violation of the criminal code.

The League said it has evidence that Mr. Farley personally solicited contributions from at least five federal employees.

Mr. Farley used sarcasm in comparing the principles of Jackson and President Roosevelt, saying that such comparison "shows that the alleged honoring of Jackson is a fraud on real Democrats."

BRUNO WILL DIE STOLIDLY, AVER PRISON GUARDS

Condemned Man Shrugs When Told His Death Set for Jan. 17.

By United Press
TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 8.—State prison attendants offered long odds today that Bruno Richard Hauptmann will die in nine days, unless a court reprieves him, as stolidly as he has lived and with any secrets of the Lindbergh kidnapping he may know unrevealed.
