President's Jackson Day Speech Tonight to Be Broadcast by All Networks.

NEARLY every station on the arteries of the Columbia, National and Mutual broadcasting systems will clear the air lanes tonight for the second time in less than a week for President Roosevelt's speech at the Jackson Day dinner in Washington at 9 o'clock. Mention of the Supreme Court's decision on the AAA may be included in the chief executive's 30-minute address. Stations WFPM, WIRE and WLW will carry the broadcast from the capital.

Although there is no means of counting the radio audience which listened to the President's opening address to Congress last Friday night, the New York Telephone Co. estimated that calls were approximately 40 per cent below normal during the hour in which the speech was broadcast.

PRECEDING the President by a few hours, tonight, Henry H. Curran, director of the National Economy League and a persistent critic of the administration's financial policies, will speak on "The President's 1936 Budget" at 6:45 via NBC-WJZ.

The March of Time program is not to be discontinued as was announced previously. WFPM is carrying the CBS feature nightly at 9:30 this week, and the program is soon to be resumed as a 30-minute weekly program. The 10 best moving pictures of 1935 are selected in the Film Daily poll are to be discussed on tomorrow night's program.

A quarrel and a tense family climax are in store for followers of One Man's Family broadcast tonight at 7 on the NBC-WEAF network. Those devotees of the series should be interested to know that more than 1,256,000 words have been written to chronicle the doings of the Barbour family.

Also at 7, "Public Service of Women" will be the theme of the "Cavalcade of America" program will be broadcast over the WABC-Columbia network.

GRACIE Allen will toss all New Year resolutions into the discard and sing on the CBS program with George Burns at 7:30. If given a chance by Gracie, Jacques Renard's orchestra will play "All's Well" and "Beautiful Lady in Blue."

Two favorite excerpts from George Gershwin's opera, "Porgy and Bess," will be the highlights of the program with Lily Pons and Andre Kostelanetz' orchestra over the nation-wide CBS network at 8 o'clock. They are "Summertime" and "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'." The popular soprano will sing two other coloratura arias, the "Oriental" by Cui and "Shadow Song" from Meyerbeer's opera, "Dinorah."

Two crime prevention programs are to be on the air tonight. Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing prison has selected "Into the Least of These" for his 20,000 Years in Sing Sing series at 8:30 over NBC-WJZ. "Gang Busters," Phillips Lord's new series of true dramatizations of thrilling police department exploits in the war, will be inaugurated over CBS at 9.

ELIZABETHAN music by the London Madrigal Group will be featured on the NBC Music Guild program at 9:30. T. B. Lawrence, conductor, assisted by Suzanne Block and Karl Dolmetsch, will be featured as guest performer.

Shirley Heller, contralto-singing sister of NBC's Jackie Heller, made her radio debut Monday over station WMAQ and will be heard tonight and tomorrow night at 10:15 from the same station.

Songs from Wendell Hall's Old Fashioned Scrap Book, to be featured over the Red Headed Music Maker's program tomorrow morning at 10:15 include "I'm Sorry I Made You Cry," "Roll Along, Prairie Moon" and "The Oregon Trail."

Loretta Lee is the hit of all Hit Parade programs. With the presentation of another Hit Parade program on the CBS network, Miss Lee becomes the featured vocalist on three different networks, since she sings on a similar program for NBC and is the featured performer on the Mutual Broadcasting System's "Good Evening Serenade."

EDDIE House, popular singing organist, has returned to WFPM with a three-a-week series to be heard Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 6:15 p. m. Well known in the theatrical and radio world, House began his career at the San Francisco Exposition.

Durelle Alexander, who has been signed to sing on the new Paul Whiteman program starting Sunday, is only 17 and has never studied voice.

Al Pearce and his gang will broadcast their popular variety show program each Friday at 8 over a NBC-WJZ network. The program has been on the air on Friday afternoons, but the shift is Fred Allen will look in retrospect at the achievements of the "Town Hall Tonight" program tonight at 8 when he celebrates the first anniversary of his amateur hour on the NBC-WEAF network. Allen also will receive the Radio Stars award for his attainments on the air.

$149,000 PWA JOB IS BEGUN

City Grants Permit for Men's Dormitory at State Hospital Site.

Permit for the erection of a $149,000 men's dormitory at the Central State Hospital, 3000 W. Washington-st., was granted today by the city. Construction is to be financed by a PWA grant.

The dormitory, to provide quarters for 100 male patients, is to be erected on the south portion of the hospital grounds, near two cottages which have been in use respectively one and three years. It is to be a part of a building program based on the cottage plan.

Two floors of the building are to be for patients, and a partial third floor is to be quarters for employees. Brick and concrete are to be the materials. Excavation for the structure was started a week ago. Completion is expected by next fall.

Fraternity Chooses Officers New officers of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity are Louis S. Binkley, president; J. K. Pierson, vice president; F. M. Call, secretary, and Jack McCoy, treasurer. Election was held last night at the Athenaeum.
