

Many Pick Short Route to Sunshine

Society Packs Bags With Summer Apparel and Seeks Warmth.

BY BEATRICE BURGAN
Society Editor

As the crow flies—so flies society; it is picking out the shortest and quickest route to warmth and sunshine.

We can't all be winter enthusiasts, and those who admit they are not, are packing their bags with summery fashions and are turning South and West.

A more favorable climate alone hasn't drawn Mrs. Lee Burns toward California. She hasn't seen her daughter, Mrs. Dan Layman, since her marriage here last spring, and she is eager for a reunion.

She set out yesterday with Mrs. B. F. Ninde, who is to be a guest of her brother, Dr. Willi Moffett, and Mrs. Moffett at Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Layman live at Pasadena. Recently, the Laymans and Mrs. Josephine Morris McKee attended the symphony at Los Angeles and met Hale MacKeen, former Civic Theater director, in the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Layman motored to Santa Barbara expecting to meet Mr. and Mrs. John G. Williams when they stopped to visit Mr. Williams' mother, Mrs. Richard W. Satheran, before their honeymoon trip to Honolulu.

The parties missed each other, but the Laymans lightened their disappointment by a visit to Deep Well Ranch, home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Boyd. Mrs. Boyd was here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacqueline S. Holliday are on their way to Palm Springs, Cal. They left their home at Shooters Hill yesterday.

Possibilities of running into friends from home increases as the sub-zero weather threatens to continue. Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Adams headed their car toward Naples, Fla., last week.

The Herman Krammers already are in Florida. Their friends have received cards flaunting the tropical attractions at Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knowles also are basking in the Floridian suns, and have written back about their sun tans and the comfort of the climate.

WINIFRED DOUGLASS WEDS LOUIS SCHADE

Mrs. Elva Douglass, 3728 Ruckelst, has announced the marriage of her daughter Winifred to Louis Schade, son of Mrs. Conrad Schade, Hoosier.

The wedding took place Saturday evening at the home of the Rev. Alvin T. Coate. Mr. and Mrs. Schade are to make their home at 5901 E. Washington-st.

Entertains Card Club

Mr. and Mrs. George Schader, 2403 E. Raymond-st., recently entertained ten members of their card club at a dinner party. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shelley.

SIGNAL BEATS CONTRACT

Today's Contract Problem

Here's an interesting hand to bid. If the final contract is six no trump, how should declarer play the hand to make the six-odd?

♠ K 10 7 2
♦ A K J 5
♦ 10 8
♦ A 5

♣ 6 4 2
♦ Q 7 6 3
♦ A 10 7 3 2
♦ Dealer ♦ Void

♠ A 6
♦ 10 9 8
♦ A J
♦ K Q 9 8 6 4

None vul. Opener—♦ 3. Solution in next issue. 20

Solution to Previous Contract Problem

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY
Secretary American Bridge League

IT is surprising the number of times the "defensive suit-directing signal" can be employed. Possibilities of this convention almost are unlimited. Every day new opportunities to use it are developed.

Here's a no trump hand in which it is exceptionally valuable. Unless West can direct his partner to return a certain suit, the contract can not be defeated.

Against the three no trump contract West opened his fourth best heart. To direct his partner to return the nine and South played the jack, West winning with the queen.

West, at this point, knew that declarer had held the ace of hearts and employed the holdup play to exhaust East of hearts.

This meant that East probably would be able to win a spade trick and would have to know what to return after he did win that spade.

A Day's Menu

BREAKFAST—

Steamed diced apricots, cod-fish balls with egg sauce, corn pone, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—

Lentil soup, croutons, banana and peanut salad, rye bread, filled cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—

Spanish lamb, turnip cups filled with buttered peas, head lettuce with Roquefort cheese dressing, orange coconut fruit pie, milk, coffee.

Take Marriage Vows in Three Recent Ceremonies

All photos by Dexheimer-Carion.

Mrs. Owen W. Calvert (left) was Miss Anna Marie Sander, daughter of Carl G. Sander, before her marriage.

Marriage vows were exchanged recently by Miss Cornelia Burrell (center) and Francis John Schmitt.

Before her marriage Mrs. Claude Shapiro (right) was Miss Ida Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Green.

EVENTS

PROGRAMS

Altrus Club, Fri. Noon, Columbia Club. Miss Beatrice Short, P. H. N. A. superintendent, speaker, "A Hospital Without Walls."

Riverside Civic Association, 7:30 tonight, Municipal Gardens. Business meeting, entertainment, dance. Charles Meischke, president. Announcement arrangements for dance, card party Feb. 28.

Indianapolis Flower Mission, 10 Thurs., Fletcher Trust Co. Bldg. Mrs. David Ross, president.

Woman's Contract Club, 1:15 Thurs., Indianapolis Athletic Club.

Irvington Union of Clubs, 8 p. m. Thurs., Irvington Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Demarco Brown, "Some Famous Americans in Paris."

Nina Brigham Union, W. C. T. U. Tonight, Mrs. Florence Anderson, and mother of Lew Wallace, the novelist.

Mrs. Charles Mazey is to be hostess for the Municipal Gardens Woman's Department Club at a Valentine luncheon at 12:30 Monday at the clubhouse. Assistant hostesses are to be Mesdames H. A. Harlan, E. C. Ball, Irwin McFeters, C. C. Rothman, Ernest Milholland and E. C. Ruster.

Decorations are to be carried out under the direction of Charles Baucle, Marion County Recreation Bureau member.

The program is under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Johnson.

Corbin Patrick, of the Indianapolis Star, is to speak on "Hollywood Panorama."

Mrs. Charles Mayer, regent, and Mrs. Stuart Dean.

Mrs. Johnson

Members of the Marion County Recreation Bureau are to present a puppet show, "Sleepy Hollow." Those presenting the show are to be Miss Ruth Benefiel, David Milligan and Paul L. Rouse.

Mr. Riley addressed the group at a meeting of the local group at Ayres auditorium.

Mrs. Coleman outlined functions of the state library.

"With the highly developed and efficient city library and state library supplementing it, Indianapolis citizens have equipment second to no city of its size in the United States," he said.

Mrs. Walter Greenough, acting president of the league, presided.

D. A. R. CONGRESS

DELEGATES NAMED

General Arthur St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have elected delegates to the continental D. A. R. congress in Washington, April 20. They are Mrs. Charles Mayer, regent, and

Mrs. Stuart Dean.

Mrs. Clyde A. Wands is Mrs. Meyer's alternate, and other alternates are Mesdames Raymond Lynn, Russell Sullivan and Frederie Krull.

Lotto Party Arranged

Proceeds from the Valentine lotto party to be given at 8 Feb. 13 in the Claypool by Daughters of Isabella are to be used for the mill fund at St. Elizabeth's Home. Co-chairmen in charge of the party are the Misses Stella and Thelma Haugh.

Earlham Club to Meet

Dr. Elden H. Mills, Forest Hills, N. Y., former First Friends Church pastor, is to appear on the program of the Indianapolis Earlham College Women's Club tomorrow night at Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sahn's home. Miss Martha Burns, harpist, is to entertain.

At the sign of the BREAD BOARD... eat deliciously! Three clever people are directing this newest tea-room—1635 N. Meridian. Their flair for unusual food and cozy informal atmosphere will delight every heart. Just the spot for luncheon, tea, dinner or late snack, and bridge parties. You indeed... with original refreshments and favors. (Phone Ta. 3382.)

Such a lot of talk about tiny artichokes... have you enjoyed this delicacy served with just French Dressing?

With all the wintry weather, there's something to warm the heart and cheer the hungry soul. You knew all the time it was FENDRICK'S Peasant Room. Sink back in the deep restful Windsor chairs... into the intimacy of a really clever dining room. The famous foods from FENDRICK'S kitchen will delight every epicure among you. And do order your favorite import from the wine cellar below... drink and dine merrily in the spirit of an old English tavern. (Terminal Bldg.)

Real, sure nuff Chili Mexican temped to the taste of Northerners—offers interesting relief from routine "dining out."

When you serve old-fashioned iced tea... try adding Hawaiian pineapple fingers.

And may your mood be a mellow one...

Dorothy

Farm Group Meets Here This Month

Women of State Bureau Will Outline Youth Program Feb. 27, 28.

Efforts to keep the boys and girls "down on the farm" are to be made by women connected with the Indiana Farm Bureau, in their sixth annual meeting at the Claypool Feb. 27 and 28. More than 1400 women are expected to attend.

"We hope to outline programs which will influence boys and girls to remain on the farms, stressing their importance in agricultural organizations," Mrs. Lillie D. Scott, women's board chairman, said today. "We feel that this is necessary to build future leadership for our organizations. While we have carried on a youth program in previous years, we hope to stress it even more this year."

Women directors of the social and educational departments of the districts are to have charge in co-operation with M. K. Derrick, head of the Indiana Farm Bureau, and Lewis Taylor, bureau president.

Directors from 10 Indiana districts include Mesdames Alice Womach, Valparaiso; Morris Hanson, Fremont; Austin Cochran, Frankfort; Raymond McNeal, Russiaville; Russell Cushman, Fortville; W. C. Roberts, Heltonville; Calvin Perdue, Action; Ray Peters, Vallonia, and Mrs. Scott, and Miss Della Hemmer, Huntingburg.

Speakers are to include Mr. Derrick and Mr. Taylor.

WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON—We had 52 ladies at luncheon today. I always ask a number of the wives of the diplomatic corps, for I think it is pleasant for the American women who are living in Washington temporarily, or coming from other states, to have an opportunity to talk with them. These women, who are representing their countries here, will interpret American women to their friends when they go home, on the basis of those they have met while here.

The wife of the Argentine ambassador, Senora Espil, who is an American, sat on my right, and the wife of the Brazilian ambassador, Madame Aranha, sat on my left. The latter has two young daughters, 12 and 17 years old, who are in school here. She bemoans the fact that they have learned English so much faster than she has. One of the advances of two Cabinet wives, Mrs. Dern and Mrs. Cummings, who were present, and then grew rather interested in giving an account of the other American women there. I pointed out Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, director of the mint; Miss Dorothy Thompson, well-known author; Miss Dorothy Straus, a young lawyer from New York City; Mrs. Izetta Jewell Miller, regional director for the women's division of the Works Progress Administration; Miss Jane Hoey, who has recently joined the staff of the Social Security Board and who is well known for her 10 years of work with the welfare council in New York City; Miss Winifred Mallon, president of the Women's Press Club here; Mrs. Lucille McMillin of the Civil Service Commission; Mrs. Carroll Miller, national committee woman from Pennsylvania; Mrs. Anne Dickie Olsen of Minnesota, Mrs. Lawrence McDaniel of Missouri, Mrs. Thomas McAllister of Michigan, all active in work of one kind or another in their states.

Added to these were wives of numerous Senators and Congressmen and one member of Congress from Indiana, Mrs. Virginia E. Jenkins.

I remember some years ago a man said to my husband that he felt that when women took part in politics and business, they would undoubtedly lose some of their feminine charm. However, as I looked around the table, I decided that this fear was proved groundless because there seemed to be plenty of good looks, plus charm and brains as well, in evidence.

League of Women Voters Hears Talks on Educational Program

The majority of all National Youth Administration funds allotted to Indiana are to be used for educational projects. Indianapolis League of Women Voters' members learned today from Winston Riley Jr., director of the educational department of the NYA.

"To solve the problems of adult readers who are studying some chosen subject, advisers at the library have prepared 300 special courses."

Dr. Coleman outlined functions of the state library. He listed groups it serves, stressing great rural appeal, and discussed special reference problems.

"With the highly developed and efficient city library and state library supplementing it, Indianapolis citizens have equipment second to no city of its size in the United States," he said.

Mrs. Walter Greenough, acting president of the league, presided.

D. A. R. CONGRESS

DELEGATES NAMED

General Arthur St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have elected delegates to the continental D. A. R. congress in Washington, April 20. They are Mrs. Charles Mayer, regent, and

Mrs. Stuart Dean.

Mrs. Clyde A. Wands is Mrs. Meyer's alternate, and other alternates are Mesdames Raymond Lynn, Russell Sullivan and Frederie Krull.

Lotto Party Arranged

Proceeds from the Valentine lotto party to be given at 8 Feb. 13 in the Claypool by Daughters of Isabella are to be used for the mill fund at St. Elizabeth's Home. Co-chairmen in charge of the party are the Misses Stella and Thelma Haugh.

Earlham Club to Meet

Dr. Elden H. Mills, Forest Hills, N. Y., former First Friends Church pastor, is to appear on the program of the Indianapolis Earlham College Women's Club tomorrow night at Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sahn's home. Miss Martha Burns, harpist, is to entertain.

At the sign of the BREAD BOARD... eat deliciously! Three clever people are directing this newest tea-room—1635 N. Meridian. Their flair for unusual food and cozy informal atmosphere will delight every heart. Just the spot for luncheon, tea, dinner or late snack, and bridge parties. You indeed... with original refreshments and favors. (Phone Ta. 3382.)

Such a lot of talk about tiny artichokes... have you enjoyed this delicacy served with just French Dressing?

With all the wintry weather, there's something to warm the heart and cheer the hungry soul. You knew all the time it was FENDRICK'S Peasant Room. Sink back in the deep restful Windsor chairs... into the intimacy of a really clever dining room. The famous foods from FENDRICK'S kitchen will delight every epicure among you. And do order your favorite import from the wine cellar below... drink and dine merrily in the spirit of an old English tavern. (Terminal Bldg.)

Real, sure nuff Chili Mexican temped to the taste of Northerners—offers interesting relief from routine "dining out."

When you serve old-fashioned iced tea... try adding Hawaiian pineapple fingers.

And may your mood be a mellow one...

Dorothy

Board to Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association is to meet at 10 tomorrow at the nursery.