

FEDERAL ROAD AID IS SOUGHT BY STATE BODY

Indiana Commission Goes to Washington to See U. S. Officials.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Members of the Indiana State Highway Commission are here today for a series of conferences which they hope will result in a restoration of $3,000,000 of normal Federal highway funds for the state's program this year.

They are enlisting the aid of the Hoosier Congressional delegation to push their plan with Thomas McDonald, chief of the Federal Bureau of roads.

President Roosevelt suggested in his budget message that "normal Federal aid" for highways should be postponed for 1936-37, since states had not contracted for expenditure of funds already allocated.

Chairman James D. Adams of the Indiana commission points out that such is not the case in Indiana and if the normal $3,000,000 is given now it can be readily expended.

Present funds are contracted 97 per cent and with the letting of one more contract will be 100 per cent under contract, he said.

Mr. Adams upon his arrival here yesterday was forced to remain in bed at his hotel because of a severe cold.

I. William Curry, 2248 N. La Salle-st., announced today he would seek the Democratic nomination for representative in Congress from the Eleventh District on a platform advocating the Townsend old-age pension and principles of Father Coughlin's National Union for Social Justice.

W. S. McClintic, state Townsend manager, has announced his organization is not interested in candidates at this time and that any endorsement of candidates is to be made by national headquarters.

INSURANCE MAN ROBBED

Prospective 'Client' Takes $30, Police Told by Victim.

A man who said he was a client interested in an insurance policy last night robbed George Edwin Bowden, 24, of 3530 Balsam-av, agent for the National Life and Accident Insurance Co. of $30, he reported to police today.

Mrs. Grover Shockley reported to police that a thief entered her home, 840 W. 27th-st., with a pass key, and took $25 that she had hidden in a dresser drawer.

Lincoln Was Great Man, Civil War Soldier Agrees

Vote for Abe Was Only G. O. P. Ballot Cast by Veteran.

Jeriah Dinkins, 94-year-old Civil War veteran, voted a Republican ticket once and he cast his ballot for Abraham Lincoln. Furthermore, he left a hospital bed where he lay wounded to do it.

It isn't his politics he'll discuss. More important than that to him is Abraham Lincoln—the man.

Mr. Dinkins, who lives with his daughter, Mrs. Emma Wilbur at 1433 W. 32nd-st., enlisted in the Union Army with three other brothers. Two of them died of yellow fever. Mr. Dinkins was wounded twice. Once he had to walk more than seven miles to a dressing station.

Guarded Lincoln's Body

"I was in Washington that night Lincoln was assassinated," he said. "I had come there on a pass, and was on my way back to camp when I heard of it from excited passersby in the street."

"Some sentries stopped me, and an officer commanded my services. For two days and a night I stood guard over his body. When asked if he thought Lincoln a great man, Mr. Dinkins replied:

"Yes, 'great' is the word for it. His vision and patriotism and firmness in the right were an inspiration to us all. It is a pity Lincoln didn't live to finish the great work he started."

Four of Mr. Dinkins' seven children are living. He has three great-grandchildren.

MORGAN GIVEN BACKING

Former G. O. P. Chairman Is Urged for Governor Race.

Ivan C. Morgan of Austin, former Republican state chairman, has been suggested as a candidate for the nomination for Governor by Grant Rogers, township trustee of Jackson Township, Brown County, in a letter to party leaders. His theory was that what the party needs is more business methods and less politics, and that Mr. Morgan would fill this qualification.

COKE PRICE RISE UNDER INQUIRY

Dr. Carr Begins Private Investigation for Benefit of Council.

Dr. Silas J. Carr, City Council vice president, today launched a private investigation into the rise in coke prices here. He plans to report his findings at the Council meeting Monday night.

Coke sells for $9.25 a ton now, while before Nov. 1, the price was $8.90. Since the city now owns the gas company, Dr. Carr said the price should be much lower.

Civic organizations have inquired concerning the increased coke price, and Henry L. Dithmer, board president of the Citizens Gas and Coke Utility, explained that the price of Pocahontas coal largely governed the price of coke because of the large quantity of this coal used in coke manufacture.

Mr. Dithmer said Pocahontas was higher this year than last due to increases in wages of miners and to strict regulations made operative recently by Federal authorities. The city pays more for the coal it obtains from its own West Virginia mine, Mr. Dithmer said.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mild and pleasant.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They help ease the bowels to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache caused by constipation—you should find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets.

Thousands take them to keep right. Try them. 15c, 50c, 60c.—Advertisement.
