

SIX GROUPS ARE CHOSEN TO AID ANTI-T. B. WORK

$1400 Needed to Reach Seal Goal of $32,000, Shotwell Says.

Personnel of six committees of the Marion County Tuberculosis Association were named today by Grier M. Shotwell, organization president.

Mr. Shotwell also reported that approximately $1400 more is needed if the organization's $32,000 Christmas Seal goal is reached.

One hundred children are to be cared for at the Julia Jameson Nutrition Camp at Bridgeport next summer, and additional funds are needed to equip the new health pre-ventorium being constructed at Bridgeport, Mr. Shotwell said.

REPORTER TO SPEAK TO HOOSIER EDITORS

James Kilgallen Coming Here for Talk Friday.

James L. Kilgallen, former Indianapolis newspaper man, and reporter for the International News Service, and Russell Westover, creator of "Tillie the Toiler," syndicated comic strip, are to address the annual meeting of the Hoosier State Press Association in the Spink Arms Friday.

Earlier they are scheduled to speak to journalism students at Butler University and at 2 they are to be interviewed over WFPM.

Mr. Kilgallen is to tell of his experience in covering some of the nation's biggest news stories, including the Hauptmann and Hall-Mills murder trials and the flight of Samuel Insull to Greece.

HALF OF DELINQUENT LIST TO BE CALLED

Big Bidders Are Financial Houses, 'Tax Buyers.'

Marion County's delinquent tax sale is to continue today with about half the list to be announced, according to Fay Wright, chief deputy treasurer.

The sale was the first in three years due to the tax moratorium law, started yesterday with most of the bidders being financial houses and "tax buyers."

As the list was called it was found that a large number of people, who had become delinquent in their taxes and whose property had been listed for sale, had paid their taxes and cleared the property, Mr. Wright said.

The properties on sale are represented by more than $1,000,000 in taxes.

NEW DEAL BARS LINCOLN IDEALS, GAUSE CLAIMS

Middle Class Is Forgotten, State Bar Head Tells Young G. O. P.

Fred C. Gause, Indiana Bar Association president, today told the Hoosier Republicans, Inc., in a Columbia Club address at noon, that "the present Administration disagrees with the immortal Lincoln."

"In his inspirational Gettysburg address," he said, "Lincoln pointed out that all men are created equal.

The present Administration disagrees because it recognizes only two classes—the extremely poor and the extremely rich. The forgotten people of this country are those of the great middle class, whose savings will be wiped out by the inevitable excessive taxes to be levied to pay for the New Deal spending orgy.

"You young men are the hope of the Republican Party in the coming campaign. You have the ability and energy necessary to bring a return of sane government to this state and nation, and you are not battle-scarred and fettered with entangling alliances. Naturally you will join with all loyal Republicans and accept the advice and assistance of young and old on party matters.

"The Republican Party is bigger than any one man, and it should not be used to further the interests of any one man or group of men. Any one who attempts to use the Republican Party for the purpose of
