

BEHIND THE MIKE

Youth Escapes Prison Term by Recalling Details of Radio Program.

BY RALPH NORMAN

BECAUSE he listened to One Man's Family broadcast the night of Dec. 4, Floyd Bond, 19, Chicago Negro, is a free man today.

The newest alibi we know of, the radio, worked in his case. His knowledge of One Man's Family program of that night was so detailed and accurate that a Criminal Court judge decided he must have been at home listening and not snatching a purse two miles away. The case was nolle-prossed.

A copy of the script was obtained from San Francisco, and it was checked in detail against Bond's story. The possibility that Bond might have heard the same episode from an NBC Pacific Coast station at an earlier date was investigated, but was discarded when it was determined his radio could not have picked up the distant stations.

Bond, until his alibi was substantiated, faced a one-to-ten year penitentiary sentence.

Along the airwaves—a mixup in switching of telephone lines put NBC's FIBBER MCGEE show on CBS stations for a few minutes; the announcer, HARLOW WILCOX, used to work for CBS and several of his former cohorts wired him congratulations on returning to COLUMBIA. . . With hotels trying to book GUY LOMBARDO, RAY NOBLE and PAUL WHITEMAN, CHICAGO may soon be a dance band mecca. . . HARRY VON ZELL resigned as an announcer because of an announcing schedule which includes HELEN HAYES, LAWRENCE TIBBETT, PHIL BAKER, FRED ALLEN, and while he is in New York, JACK BENNY. . . The seventh generation of her family to become a stage star, ANNE SEYMOUR is the first to desert the theater for radio. . . EVANSVILLE'S contribution to fun, JOE COOK, is to be featured on OLESEN'S and SHUTTAS program debut Saturday. . . MISS SHUTTA in private life is MRS. GEORGE OLSEN. FREDERICK RICH was all up in the air for his last FLYING RED HORSE TAVERN program; his airplane became lost in a fog in Georgia, later made a safe forced landing in Pensacola, Fla.

SINCE Wallace Beery played "The Old Soak" for Radio Theater nearly a year ago, listeners have pleaded for a repeat performance of the popular comedy of stage and screen. Mr. Beery was presented again, but not in "The Old Soak" as the audience requested. Seeking to satisfy this demand, the Radio Theater, CBS (WFBM) at 8, will for the first time repeat a play by having Mr. Beery again broadcast "The Old Soak."

The role is made-over for Mr. Beery, who makes his wife miserable, his son scornful and upsets his daughter's romance because of fondness for the bottle. His well-concealed shrewdness in the end saves the family a lot of trouble, and all learn that he really is a grand fellow.

Around the dial—News of growth of public funds will be told on education in the News broadcast, NBC-WEAF, at 6:45; Maude Nugent, vaudeville star who composed and introduced "Sweet Rosy O'Grady," will be heard on Music Hall, NBC-WEAF, at 7; Morton Downey will join the Evening in Paris, NBC-WJZ, at 7:30, broadcast tonight; an ex-NBC page boy and an ex-department store buyer are to be featured vocalists with Russ Morgan's orchestra, NBC-WJZ, at 9:30; Purdue's chapter of the Alumni Association is sponsoring broadcasts on WLW (Chicago) at noon Tuesday and Wednesday, and at 11:15 Thursday and Friday on WOWO (Fort Wayne).

MRS. WALTER S. GREENOUGH, acting president of Indianapolis chapter of the League of Women Voters, is to be interviewed on WFBM at 5:30 this afternoon by Mrs. Leo Gardner.

On this first of a series of programs, Mrs. Greenough is to answer questions which have been asked the organization on problems of voting, finance and the league's work. The league's broadcasts are to be heard on WFBM on alternate Mondays.

Another song hit of the season, like "The Music Goes 'Round and 'Round," was ignored by leading band directors until station made it popular by playing records. Heard all over the dial now, the "Write Myself a Letter" tune is being played by those who first discarded it.

If the "Music Goes 'Round and 'Round" movie is not released soon, interest in the tune will be extinct.

A CBS network program is to originate in the WFBM studios at 12:30 tomorrow when an address by J. E. Howard, representative of the Farmers' Independence Council, is broadcast.

SONGS by Bizet, Friml and Carle Jacobs Bond, along with "Annie Laurie," are to compose Grace Moore's program on the NBC-WEAF (WIRE) hook-up at 8:30 tonight. Miss Moore attributes her commendable interpretation of songs of a lighter nature to singing in musical comedy before entering opera.

"One needs varied experience in order to reach a happy medium," she says.

HAYS DENIES STOPPING MOVIE OF LEWIS' BOOK

But Work on "It Can't Happen Here" Is Postponed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Will Hays, movie czar, took issue with red-headed Sinclair Lewis today over the reasons why "It Can't Happen Here" can't happen in Hollywood. To Mr. Lewis' charges that Mr. Hays had forbidden movie production of the novel, "It Can't Happen Here," because its anti-Fascist tenor might offend Hitler, Mussolini and the Republican Party, Mr. Hays retorted that "no one, including myself, ever made any statement to that effect."

Bpt out in Hollywood Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which owns motion picture rights to Mr. Lewis' best-selling novel, gave a contradictory flip-flop to Mr. Hays' statement by announcing a "postponement" of preparations for production.
