LENTEN SPEAKER

"Many important ingredients essential for a good life are being left out of our modern lives," Dean Sidney E. Sweet, Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, said in Lenten services this afternoon at Christ Church on the Circle.

"Both in our modern homes and our modern educational program, our industrial order and our international relationships, and especially in each of our personal lives, we are leaving out important spiritual factors," Dean said.

He is to speak daily through Friday.
