Club's Speaker Tonight Started as Corn Champ

Capt. Irving Johnson Is to Make Talk Before Men's Group.

Capt. Irving Johnson, who speaks tonight at Caleb Mills Hall under the auspices of the Men's Club of the Episcopal Church of Advent, started life by being a champion corn raiser.

That was in the East when, as a boy, he hoed the corn on his father's farm and dreamed of the high seas. Nobody knows now the corn got to be prize winning, and Capt. Johnson isn't interested.

Now he's the owner of a boat in which he just has completed an 18-month voyage around the world, and he's going to start out again on another soon with his wife and three months old child.

Meanwhile, he is to talk and show pictures of his last trip. Before owning a sailing boat, he sailed the "wrong way" around Cape Horn on a square rigger, bravely into three weeks of hurricanes. Once, in a hurricane, he climbed into the rigging and shouted at the top of his lungs, but couldn't hear his voice.

He was second in command of Shamrock V on its trip across the Atlantic after the international cup races. They ran into such gales that the boat, stripped of all sails, ran before the wind with her poles bare.

That gives you an idea.

PREDICT CUT IN FOREST SERVICE WORK IN STATE

House Fails to Provide Funds for Purchase of Indiana Land.

United Press

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Forest Service work in Indiana probably will be sharply curtailed because of the failure of the House to include in the Agriculture appropriation bill funds for land acquisition.

Forest Service officials said today that most Forest Service work in the state consisted of acquiring land for national forest sites. Failure to include an item for this in the appropriation bill would leave the Service without funds to carry on the work, it was said.

Officials said they expected to close the district ranger offices at Tell City, Paoli and Bloomington, and reduce the staff of the Bedford office to a few "custodians" who will wind up acquisition work to date.

It was pointed out, however, that the work being done by CCC enrollees under Work Relief funds toward fire protection and improvement of timber stands would continue under Forest Service direction.
