

BEN BERNIE SIGNED FOR MORNING SPOT

Mutual Programs at 8 O'clock
Are to Present Leading Bands,
Hollywood Stars and Stylists

Old Maestro to Introduce Breakfast Hour Series Either
March 19 or 26, to Be Supplanted Later by Another Popular Musical Group.

BY RALPH NORMAN

RADIO will blast another tradition when the Mutual System, probably with WLW participating, this month starts a series of early morning broadcasts featuring "name" bands and prominent movie stars and stylists. As we've always belonged to the school that believed orchestra members, except in case of fire, never arose before noon, breakfasted leisurely while we lunched, this to us is news. On the morning of March 19 and 26, Ben Bernie and All the Lads, like the good business men they are, will be up bright and early for an 8 o'clock broadcast. After a few weeks of Bernie, the "name" band will change. Donahue & Coe, advertising agents, already have signed 15 large department stores as co-operative sponsors. Kate Smith isn't alone with her stair-climbing adventures caused by elevator strikes. Graham McNamee, suffering from a sprained ankle, had to negotiate the Radio City stairs twice on crutches. Five prominent women have been signed by CBS for a week-day series at 9:30. Mondays, Thyra Smarter Winslow on books and cooking; Tuesday, Mrs. John S. Reilly on advice to mothers; Wednesday, Hildegarde Feltre on beauty; Thursday, Grand Duchess Marie on manners and etiquette; Friday, Beatrice Fairfax on heart problems. . . . Beatrice Little is to make her last Flying Red Horse Tavern appearance, CBS (WFBN), at 7 tonight.

The Marx Brothers may appear soon on CBS, but negotiations with sponsor are incomplete. It is rumored that the sponsor wants to sign the comedians for a long series, but they are holding out for a contract for six microphone appearances.

Lucille Manners will substitute tonight for Jessica Dragonette, NBC-WFAP at 7. . . . Roses and Drums, having used up the week's Civil War in its script, will leave the air after March 29. . . . Irvin S. Cobb and Rochelle Hudson are to preview scenes from their new picture, "Everybody's Old Man," CBS (WFBN) at 8. . . . Fred Allen and Jack Benny each believes the other works too hard; each is right. . . . Music men agree that Vivian della Chiesa has a big future in radio. . . . At 10:15 tonight Hal Totten and Bob Brown will give NBC-WJZ listeners a ringside description of the Chicago Golden Gloves finals.

A LISTENER wrote to the Voice of Experience, CBS (WFBN), at 11 Monday through Friday mornings, explaining that she wanted to resign from a sewing circle, but couldn't because her friend who had introduced her to the group would gossip about her. She and this friend had been guilty of certain indiscretions in their younger days and she feared they would be revealed. The Voice's answer was full of common sense. "Get up to the meeting," he advised, "and resign formally, thanking your girlfriend friend for introducing you, reminding about your girlhood days, emphasizing the fact that you and your gossip friend were inseparable then, and that what one did the other did. Then you can leave the club sure that your friend will be the first to defend your reputation."

THE talk by Communist Secretary Early Browder on CBS last night was a newsworthy radio event. Following its policy of allocating air time to representatives of all political parties, CBS aired the first Communist talk carried by a nation-wide network, presented by Secretary Browder from a small subsidiary studio when opposition forces picketed its major New York offices. A few newspapers and many politicians yesterday denounced CBS for broadcasting the talk. March of Time gave it further publicity on CBS at 9:30. At the same hour tonight, Hamilton Fish Jr., of New York, is to reply to Mr. Browder's remarks.

Candidates for officers of the league are to be presented at a meeting Thursday night in the same building. Election is to be by mail ballot.

At noon the following Tuesday, the league is to make a tour of the Technical High School building trades shops. Luncheon is to be provided at the school cafeteria.
