

THREE HOOSIERS FILE TO RETAIN CONGRESS JOBS

Griswold, Boehne, Schulte
in Primaries; Albright Seeks Berth.

Four candidates for Congress, three of whom are seeking re-election, have filed petitions at the office of Secretary of State August E. Mueller to be placed on the ballot in the May primary.

State Senator Alanson L. Albright, Cayuga, filed for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the Sixth District. The three Representatives seeking to succeed themselves are Glenn Griswold, Peru; John W. Boehne Jr., Evansville, and William T. Schulte, Hammond, Democrats.

Filing for state representative are David E. Savell and Walter E. Meyer, Democrats, and Robert W. Blasdel, Republican, Indianapolis. Present Assembly members who filed for renomination include Senator Joseph M. Robertson (D., Brownstown), Rep. Will J. Price (R., Watson), Rep. John H. Sigler (D., Elwood), and Rep. Bennett H. Rocky (D., Sharpville).

Others filing for Assembly seats were Rue Hinshaw, Carmel, Republican; Winfred O. Hughes, Fort Wayne, Republican; Carl E. Roell, Shelbyville, Democrat, and Harry Muller, Anderson, Democrat, for the House, and Samuel M. Rutherford, Evansville, Republican, and Thomas A. E. Cantwell, Terre Haute, Republican, for the Senate.

DRIVE IS ORDERED ON FALSE FIRE ALARMS

There Have Been Too Many, Safety Board Decides.

Deciding there have been too many false fire alarms and too few convictions, the Safety Board today prepared to confer with municipal judges on the problem.

Theodore H. Dammeier, board president, told Fire Chief Fred C. Kennedy and Chief Morrissey to launch a campaign against those who turn in false fire alarms.

The Gamewell report for the week ending March 7 showed four false alarms and 104 true alarms turned in.

MISSOURI BISHOP IS LENT SPEAKER HERE

'Man Can Not Help Turning to Jesus,' He Says.

The Rt. Rev. Robert N. Spencer, DD., Bishop of West Missouri, spoke today at the noon Lenten service in Christ Church, on the subject "The Comfort of Those Who Truly Turn to Him."

He said in part: "Mankind can not help turning to Jesus. He is like the eyes in a good portrait. The portrait hangs on the wall, but the eyes seem to follow you every where you go in the room. Even His enemies had to say 'The world has gone after Him.' When an atheist was denying Him, one of the hearers shouted: 'Why don't you let Him alone, if you don't like Him?' But men can't let Him alone."

PURDUE TO CONDUCT FIRST-AID COURSE

Intensive 10-Day Training to Start March 30.

Times Special
LAFAYETTE, Ind., March 10.—An intensive 10-day training course in first-aid is to be held at Purdue University, March 30 to April 10, Lieut. Franklin M. Kreml, Public Safety Institute chairman, announced today.

Invitations to enter candidates for the course are to be sent to organizations in the state, Lieut. Kreml said. Among groups urged to send candidates are police and fire departments, city recreational departments, Y. M. C. A.'s, Boy Scouts and high schools.

GRETA GARBO
Her TRUE Story

SHE is the best and least known woman in the world. Twenty years ago she was little Kata Gustafsson, playing about the door of her tenement home in Stockholm. Today she is the great Garbo, regal and pre-eminent actress of the screen. Her rise has been sensational. And even more mysterious. What is the secret of her celebrity? What manner of person is she? There are myriad rumors. But not until now—as disclosed by Elisabeth von Caub in a new biographical close-up—have the facts been made public.
