

WFBM TO OFFER WALTER HUSTON, WIFE FUNERAL FOR ARMY TAILOR IS HELD HERE

Broadcast at 5 to Precede Stage Appearance at English's in Sinclair Lewis' 'Dodsworth'

Stage and Screen Dramatist and His Leading Lady (Both at Home and on Stage) to Present Scene From New York Hit.

WALTER HUSTON, well-known dramatic actor of stage and screen, with his wife and leading lady, Nan Sunderland, is to present a scene from "Dodsworth" at 5 this afternoon over WFBM. It is in this famous play, based on Sinclair Lewis' popular novel of the same name, that Mr. and Mrs. Huston are appearing tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night at English's.

An interview with Mr. and Mrs. Huston by Announcer Ken Ellington will complete the 15-minute WFBM broadcast.

In "Dodsworth," Mr. and Mrs. Huston enjoyed a run of 42 weeks in New York, played three months in Chicago. He is no stranger to radio, drama, having played for the Radio Theater and on Rudy Valle's Variety Hour.

Every one talks about Friday, the 13th, but Comedian Frank Fay actually did something about it. Weeks ago radio press agents began pestering him for his pet superstition. Tiring of it, he organized "We Hate Press Agents Who Make Up Superstitions Association," a division of "Amalgamated Haters of America, Inc." and plans to extend the enterprise to cover New Year's resolutions, valentines, Things We Are Thankful For, Christmas greetings, Groundhog Day thoughts, and to include the Hobby "Thinker-Uppers." Exciting Moments, Pet Aversions and the Favorite Recipients.

By launching a new career tonight with a concert appearance at New York's Town Hall, Conrad Thibault, of Show Boat fame, proves he isn't afraid of the Friday, the thirteenth, omen. And because she was born on Friday, the thirteenth, because she received her first offer to broadcast on Friday, the thirteenth, and because on Friday the thirteenth, 1932, she was asked to join the Manzaneros' South American orchestra, Helen Boyd feels that most good things come to her on this date, wonders what will happen today.

Around the Dial Tonight—Lucille Mann, soprano, will substitute for Jessica Dragonette at 7. NBC-WEAF, Dick Powell is to present on Hollywood Hotel, CBS (WFBM) at 8. Joan Bennett, Zasu Pitts and Fred MacMurray in a preview of their new film, "Thirteen Hours in Air," Abe Lyman will play Irving Berlin a musical tribute by devoting the entire Waltz Time program, NBC-WEAF (WLW) at 8. To Berlin compositions; Frank Parker flew from Florida to New York to appear with Richard Himber, CBS (WFBM) at 9.

The plan to have Stoopnagle and Budd succeed Beatrice Little on the Flying Red Horse Tavern program, CBS (WFBM) at 7, fell through because of an argument over money, and the Tavern is to bring back Miss Little for another performance tonight, although she is in Philadelphia for stage appearances. Stoopnagle and Budd, without a sponsor, are to begin a new series, "Keep Stoopnagle out of the White House," on CBS (WFBM) at 8:45 tomorrow night.

When Vincent Lopez scheduled "Gloomy Sunday," the tune blamed as prompting many Hungarian suicides, for his radio program, the arranger became seriously ill while making the orchestration, and the singer had to be replaced at the last minute, also because of illness. The tune was introduced to American listeners by Hal Kemp, who played it over the Mutual Network, with no disastrous results reported.

Don't be surprised at any queer sound effects you may hear on WIRE. Despite much hammering, sawing and other carpentry work, programs are kept on regular schedule, and the station is on the air from 6:45 each morning until midnight. The station's studios at 540 N. Meridian-st. are undergoing a complete remodeling.
