

I. U. MUSICIANS
TO VISIT NINE
STATE TOWNSGroup to Take Three-Day
Tour; 6 City Men
Are to Play.Times Special
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 13.—Six Indianapolis students today were selected among Indiana University musicians who are to start a three-day band concert tour of nine Hoosier cities Wednesday.

The Indianapolis group is composed of Elbert Charpie, John Kellholz, Theodore Jones, George Davidson, Stewart Moore and Verne Jaeger.

Opening at the Martinsville High School gymnasium Wednesday morning, the tour is to be concluded Friday afternoon with a program at Linton. Other cities to be visited are Anderson, Brazil, Sullivan, Sherrillville, Edinburg, Franklin and Terre Haute.

Members Are Listed
Frederick E. Green, I. U. band director, has announced a program that is to include a dozen of the more popular band compositions with a number of solo parts.

Those chosen from the university's marching band, in addition to the Indianapolis musicians, include:

Robert Magill, Joseph Redick, Robert Lee, William Mathers, Robert Strain, Jack Leffler, Richard Schores, Frederick Neel and Jack Carmen, Bloomington.

Frank Bass, Harold McCabe and Edward Werner, Shelbyville; William Blehl and Lawrence Harpold, Brazil; Robert Walters and Marion Erwin, Albion.

Homer Arnold, Rockville; Harold Fervenda, Silver Lake; Carl Bailey, Huntington; Edward Walker, Connersville; Austin Tomlinson, South Bend; Russell Julian, Walton, and Samuel Mitchell, Salem.

Others Are Named
Charles Palmer and John Newland, Washington; Richard Giannini and Lester Chandler, Evansville; Bill Leininger, Akron; Robert Sturgeon, Upland and Malcolm Bray, Noblesville.

W. C. Culmer, Bedford; Harry Bush and Robert Pierce, East Chicago; Francis Henderson, Elwood; Jack Rubin, John Zucker and Mark Tomas, Gary; William Robertson and Vaughn Geddes, New Albany.

Jack Waltz, Georgetown; Harold Johnson, Petersburg; Donowan Guilford, Kingman; John Waller, Mt. Vernon and Kenneth Bennett, Dillsboro.

GARNER UNRUFFLED BY
CHAIN-LETTER CAMPAIGNVice President Says He Sent Vote
Complaint to George.

By NEA Service

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Vice President Garner is not worried over the chain-letter campaign started against him by the Woman's Committee of Louisiana.

The committee has accused him of suppressing its petition for consideration of its charges against Senator John H. Overton (D., La.), whom the committee wishes to unseat.

"No use writing chain-letters to me about it," said the Vice President. "I turned the petition over long ago to Senator George, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections."
