

INTEREST HIGH IN HOME SHOW, DIRECTOR SAYS

Many Local Men Plan Visit to Similar Exhibition at Milwaukee.

Encouraged today by the co-operation of manufacturers, distributors and dealers, J. Frank Cantwell, director of the Indianapolis Home Show, stated that many local exhibitors are planning to visit the Milwaukee Home Show this week. Mr. Cantwell, who returned recently from Milwaukee, announced that the careful preparation and study shown in the displays there indicated the character of the Indianapolis show as well. Simplicity, and good design, he stated, are common to both.

The Indianapolis Show, to open April 16, is to have what T. C. Brown, president of the organization, says is the most pretentious model home ever built for the exhibition. Erection of displays is to start on the grounds at the Manufacturers Building March 30.

Mr. Cantwell is in close contact with the building industry and feels the coming season is certain to bring results in that field through the added interest created by the Home Show.

WALKERS' ATTEMPT TO ADOPT INFANT FAILS

Chicago Home Halts Proceeding and Blames Publicity.

By United Press
CHICAGO, March 20.—Starry-eyed Mary Patricia greeted the dawn today with a hungry wail and practically no chance of ever calling Jimmy Walker her "Daddy."

Front-page fanfare such as accompanied the dapper Walker's reign as New York Mayor spoiled his plans to supply a home for little Mary Patricia, five months old and now a guest at the Evanston Cradle Society Home.

"As a result of the publicity which the Cradle Society deprecates, it is deemed advisable that Mr. and Mrs. James Walker discontinue the adoption proceedings," declared Mrs. William E. Walrath, manager of the home which has supplied foster children for many famous couples.

SEEK 23 SEWER LIDS STOLEN FROM INLETS

Claude E. Shover, street commissioner, and police searched today for thieves who have stolen 23 sewer inlet lids on White River-blvd., between Morris and Raymond-sts.
