

170 VETERANS TO BE FETED BY CITY CLUB

25-Year Members Are to Be
Honored at Beefsteak
Dinner Tuesday.

More than 170 veteran members of the Columbia Club are to be honored at the forty-seventh annual Beefsteak Dinner next Thursday night.

As a feature of the program Charles Milton Newcomb, humorist, is to be guest of honor and speaker of the evening. He has announced he will talk on the subject "What Are You Afraid Of?"

Music, a floor show, boxing and wrestling are also on the schedule for the annual stag entertainment.

MOTORIST FINED $100 FOR FLEEING ACCIDENT

Bridgeport Man Found Guilty in Fatal Hit-Run Crash.

William Russell Cress, Bridgeport, is to be sentenced Monday by Earl E. McFarren, criminal judge pro tem, after having been found guilty yesterday of failure to stop after an accident.

The jury deliberated more than six hours and assessed a fine of $100 against Cress. The jury gave no jail sentence.

Cress is alleged to have been the driver of an auto which struck and killed Lester Spangler, 20, of 2166 Napoleon-st., as he was walking on the National-rd west of Indianapolis, Nov. 24, 1934.

THIS WAS LAST DAY OF WINTER—NOW LOOK

What's wrong with this picture? We can tell you. It was taken yesterday, the last day of winter, in the glorious sunshine of midday on Butler University campus. It does not reflect the snowy first day of spring, which is today. Anyway the girls, Butler students, are, left to right, Mary Paxton Young, Jane Deranian and Marvella Rainey, rolling the campus lawn—yesterday, mind you.
