

rites arranged for prominent church worker

Mrs. Florence M. Bremer
Active in Temperance
Work in Cadie.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Florence M. Bremer, 1028 E. Morris-st., who died in a City Hospital ambulance yesterday afternoon after she had fainted on a street car at Maryland and Illinois-sts., are to be held Saturday afternoon in Cadie Tabernacle.

E. Howard Cadie, tabernacle evangelist, assisted by the Rev. R. H. Mueller, First Evangelical Church pastor, is to officiate. Place of burial has not been decided.

Mrs. Bremer, who was 53, had been a life-long resident of Indianapolis. Her death was attributed to natural causes.

She was a charter member of the Cadie Tabernacle Choir, and also belonged to the First Evangelical Church. For several years she had sponsored the Youth Temperance Council at Cadie Tabernacle, and she formerly held several county offices in the W. C. T. U.

Survivors are a brother, the Rev. H. E. Kramer of Monroe, Neb., and five daughters, Mrs. Viola Sweetland, Mrs. Alma Hause, Mrs. Esther Tichenor, Mrs. Ruth Polk and Mrs. Charlotte Davis; two sons, Robert Bremer and Frederick Bremer, and four grandchildren, all of Indianapolis.

J. W. Curry Rites Set

Funeral services for John William Curry, 1943 Parker-av., who died Tuesday in City Hospital after a year's illness, are to be held in the Harry W. Moore Funeral Home Saturday morning at 10:30. Burial is to be in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mr. Curry, who was 56, was born in Rockford and was employed 10 years by Stickle Steam Specialties Co.

Survivors are the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Violet Nolly, Miss Margaret Curry and Miss Maxine Curry, all of Indianapolis, and two sons, Harold, Indianapolis, and Ralph W. E. Curry, Long Island, N. Y.

Arrange Saxton Rites

Services for Milton Roy Saxton who died yesterday in his home, 3425 Graceland-av., after a short illness, are being arranged today. Burial is to be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Saxton, who was 48, had been blind since childhood. He attended the old Indiana State School for the Blind and was a graduate of the Benjamin Harrison Law School. He had been employed as a salesman.

Survivors are the widow; three daughters, Misses Mary and Dorothy Saxton and Mrs. Phyllis Moore; a son, Gene; the mother, Mrs. Lucy M. Saxton, and a brother, Edward Saxton. All reside in Indianapolis.

Hanf Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Valentine Hanf, 71, who died yesterday in his home, 215 N. Arsenal-av., are to be held at the Royster & Askin Funeral Home, 1902 N. Meridian-st., at 8:30 Saturday morning and in the Holy Cross Church at 9. Burial is to be in St. Joseph Cemetery.

A life-long resident of Indianapolis, Mr. Hanf attended parochial schools here and was a member of the Holy Cross Catholic Church and the Holy Name Society. Mrs. Lena Kaesberg, a sister, survives.

Thompson Rites Set

Final rites for Robert M. Thompson, 4440 Park-av., well-known livestock dealer and a leader in the Masonic order who died yesterday at Methodist Hospital following an illness of three months, are to be conducted at 4 tomorrow at the Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church.

The body is to lie in state in the services, which are to be in charge of the Rev. Sidney Blair Harry and the Rev. Thomas R. White. Burial is to be Friday in Springfield, Ky., his former home.

Mr. Thompson was 61, having been born at Springfield Feb. 19, 1875. He came here in 1913. For 15 years he was a partner in the Powell Commission Co. He was past master of the Calvin Prather Lodge, F. and A. M., past high priest of Prather chapter No. 157, Royal Arch Masons, and illustrious master of Prather Council No. 100, Royal and Select Masters, in 1930.

He also was a member of the Scottish Rite, the Prather Masonic Temple Board and a trustee of the
