

FOUR MORE FILE FOR SEATS IN U. S. CONGRESS

40 Are Candidates for General Assembly of Indiana.

Four more candidates for representative in Congress, 31 for state representative, nine for state Senator and more than a score for prosecutor and judge have filed declarations of intention in the office of Secretary of State August E. Mueller.

Candidates for the national House of Representatives include Louis W. Hedges, 60 S. Mount-st, seeking the Democratic nomination from the Twelfth district; Elmer F. Boscott, Liberty, for the Republican nomination from the Tenth district; Caleb K. White, Hammond, for the Republican nomination from the First district, and Walter F. Jones, Anderson, for the Democratic nomination from the Eleventh district.

State Representative candidates are:

L. Dallas Albright (D., Winchester), Robert E. Lee Hartman (D., Pershing), Samuel M. Baumgartner (D., Clay City), Harry A. Stearns (D., North Vernon), John W. Kitch (D., Plymouth), William C. Erbacher (D., Indianapolis), Oscar Frederick (R., Decker), Henry Kreft (R., Michigan City), Dale Scott (R., Hammond), John S. Gonias (R., Mishawaka), Otis O. Garmong (D., Terre Haute).

Seek House Seats

Alpha Hoessl (R., Kewanna), Everett E. Beatty (R., Huntington), Harold A. Carries (D., Indianapolis), Thomas A. Smith (D., Hammond), Orle A. Knight (R., Hammond), Robert W. Morris (R., Vincennes), S. H. H. Humbaugh (D., Plainfield), Boyd C. Kavanagh (R., Fort Wayne), Andrew Jones (D., East Chicago), Arthur J. Gladieux (D., Fort Wayne), Ned H. Danforth (R., Indianapolis), Joseph A. Andrew (R., Lafayette), Wilfred W. Wingate (R., Muncie), Harry Hill (D., Edinburg), Robert E. Kuhnhein (R., Muncie), Glenn R. Sienker (D., Monticello), Charles R. Johnson (D., Newcastle), Herbert C. Wadsworth (D., Castleton), James E. Wright (R., Gary).

Senate candidates are:

Cecil E. Haupt (R., Williamsport), Alphonso F. Burrows (D., Indianapolis), A. Leroy Porteau (D., Indianapolis), John A. Atherton (R., Indianapolis), Harry Bowers (D., Gary), John O. Lewis (R., Indianapolis), Terence McGhee (D., Terre Haute) and Joseph F. Sexton (D., Indianapolis).

File for Prosecutors

Prosecuting attorney candidates are:

Claude V. Barker (D., Albion), Alfred V. Ringer (R., Williamsport), Christian H. Muselman (D., Berne), Paul Miller (R., Martinsville), Elmore S. McCray (R., Kentland), Sidney Gelb (R., Vincennes), Gilson A. Glenn (R., Corydon), Joseph Lawson Kivett (R., Martinsville), John J. Boyle (R., Warsaw), Robert L. Hanna (D., Delphi), Roscoe L. Egger (D., Bremen), Paul E. Ashby (R., Evansville), Troy N. Hutto (R., Winchester), John R. Cauble (R., Rockville), Albert E. Williams (R., Greencastle), Pearlus E. Smiley (D., Lebanon), John W. Goddard (R., Greensburg), William T. O'Dowd (D., Monticello), Marshall F. Kizer (D., Plymouth).

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

DENTIST IS ACQUITTED

Easterner Freed After Trial on Manslaughter Charge.

KEENE, N. H., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed

By United Press

WESTWOOD, Cal., April 3.—Dr. Ralph H. Knight, retired dentist, was acquitted last night of manslaughter charges in connection with slaying of a Negro handyman.

The group met yesterday in the Washington, Martin M. Hugg, former county chairman, and A. O. Moly, former United States marshal, are leaders in the "reorganization" movement.

Judge candidates include:

Sam A. Connelley (D., Milan), Ripley Circuit Court; D. Russell Gordon (D., Monticello), White Circuit Court; Wilbur G. Nolin (R., Fowler), Benton Circuit Court; Cyrus E. Pattee (R., South Bend), St. Joseph Circuit Court; Henry W. Kamman (R., Evansville), Vanderburgh Probate Court; Dale Poenix (R., Rochester), Fulton Circuit Court.

1891 Check Is Cashed