

'OLD MASTER' AT PEAK FOR LINKS CLASSIC IN DIXIELAND

Golfing Eye on Jones' as Meet Begins

In Top Form, Georgian Is Betting Favorite at Augusta Course.

By United Press

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 3.—Bobby Jones played the favorite role today as the third annual Augusta Masters' golf championship started one day late.

The greatest golfer the world has ever known, in perfect condition and well atop of his game, Jones is carrying a tremendous burden of betting which represents Georgia sentiment and expert opinion. He was quoted at 6 to 1 in the latest call-over, a price two points under that of 24 hours ago.

Picard at 8 to 1. Next in line to Jones were Henry Picard, last year's halfway leader, who is the general favorite, and Johnny Revolta, P. G. A. champion. They were quoted at 8 to 1. Lawson Little, recently turned professional, and Gene Sarazen, the defender, were next, and Jimmy Hines, Paul Runyan and Ed Dudley were 10 to 1.

The course was still heavy today despite a fall of rain which measured some six inches. Four of these inches came within a space of 10 hours ending early yesterday, but a brisk wind and a warm sun hastened the drying out process.

To give the course as much time as possible to dry, play was to be held up until noon. First important twosome to tee off will be Sam Parks and Bill Burke, present and past Open champs, respectively. Jones and Sarazen will be the last twosome to start. They are to tee off at 2:45.

Sarazen Aroused Betting odds, incidentally, may play a big part in the outcome of the tourney. They will have for certain if Sarazen should repeat. Two days ago Sarazen, favorite in the heavy betting, was a tired man, whipped before he started. He said he didn't care if he won or not and certainly acted that way.

Then came a big flood of Georgia money on Jones, and along with it a distinct trend toward Picard and Revolta. Result was that Sarazen was moved back in the betting line. Sarazen was burned up and he's a dangerous man when he's in there fighting.

Pitcher Jimmy Sharp was injured in the eighth by a line drive and gave way to Rightfielder Harris. He will be out of action several days. Bouza, Fausett and J. Riddle led the Tribesmen at bat with three hits each. Laabs, Gullic and Hope carried the big guns for Milwaukee. Score:

Tribe's New Outfielder Was Batting Star at North Carolina.

J. Paul Dunlap, the outfielder bought by the Indians yesterday, hails from the University of North Carolina, where he was a batting star three years. He joined Asheville in the Piedmont League in 1934 and hit .330. The New York Yankees purchased the player and "farmed" him to Norfolk where he was injured the early part of last year.

Recovering, the young fly chaser was sent to Binghamton and he continued to pound the pellet. Dunlap stands 6 feet 1/2 inch and weighs 187. The Yankees "farmed" him to Newark this spring.

The Indianapolis club has been advised that Brooklyn plans to retain Outfielder Johnny Cooney, and Manager Killefer still is dickering for players in payment.

Basket Teams Get Under Way in Olympic Tests

McPherson Oilers, A. A. U. Champs, Are Picked to Defeat Crack College Quintets in New York.

By United Press

NEW YORK, April 3.—One of the greatest collections of basketball stars ever gathered under one roof—sharp-shooting giants and elusive midsize—will start play late today in the Olympic basketball finals at Madison Square Garden.

Eight of the nation's outstanding teams, survivors of sectional eliminations, are entered in the tournament to pick the 14 players Uncle Sam will send to Berlin this summer.

The tournament will be opened by Dr. James A. Naismith, 74-year-old professor of physical education from the University of Kansas, who nailed up a pair of peach baskets in a gym at Springfield, Mass., 45 years ago and invented basketball. Pairings for the first-round games today and tonight:

5:30—U. of Washington vs. De Paul of Chicago.

7:00—Utah State vs. Wilmerding (Pa.) Y. M. C. A.

8:30—U. of Arkansas vs. Universal Pictures of Hollywood, Cal.

10:00—Temple U. vs. McPherson (Kas.) Oilers.

The survivors will meet in the semi-finals tomorrow night, and the championship game will be staged Sunday night. Although the winning team is expected to place the largest number of men on the Olympic squad, players will be named from other teams. It is expected that seven men will be named from the winning team, five from the runner-up, and two from the remaining five.

The coach of the winning team will qualify for a similar role with the Olympic squad. His assistant will be coach of the runners-up.

The McPherson (Kas.) Oilers, who average 6 feet 6 1/2 inches in height and claim to be the world's tallest basketball team, are favored to win. The Hollywood Universals, who led the Oilers, 19-7, at halftime in the A. A. U. final only to lose in the last half, are picked to gain the final with the McPherson past-timers.

GAME CALLED OFF The opening of the baseball schedule at Indiana Central was postponed today when cold weather forced the Greyhounds to call off the contest with Franklin College at the University Heights diamond.

Kiefer Sets World Marks in Tank Meet

Four American Records Also Shattered in A. A. U. Swimming Events.

By United Press

CHICAGO, April 3.—With 10 national A. A. U. champions already crowned, America's Olympic swimming and diving hopes turned to six new events today on the third day of the 1936 indoor championships.

Six champions, including four defending titleholders, were named last night. Four American records were shattered and Adolph Kiefer, 17-year-old Lake Shore Athletic Club backstroke king, was credited with two more world marks.

Kiefer defended his 150-yard backstroke title in spectacular fashion, finishing half a pool length ahead of the field. He was clocked in 1 minute 36.9 seconds. As he swept into the lead with an early start, Kiefer also exceeded his own mark for 100 yards, setting up a new time of 57.9 seconds.

The young schoolboy giant is the only swimmer ever to travel 100 yards on his back in less than one minute.

Miss Rawls Wins

Katherine Rawls of Miami salvaged her 100-yard breast stroke crown with a strong finish that brought her a new American record of 1 minute 18.6 seconds.

Peter Fick, New York Athletic Club free style champion, retained his 100-yard title with a time of 51.7 seconds, after he had equaled Johnny Weismuller's mark of 51 seconds in afternoon preliminaries. The Washington Athletic Club's 44-year-old women's relay team was the fourth defending champion to win. Mary Lou Petty, Olive McKean, Betty Lea and Doris Buckley gave the Seattle Club a new American record of 4:13.4 for the event.

In the lone upset, both Marian Mansfield and Arlette Smith of the Lake Shore Club defeated Champion Dorothy Poynton Hill in the women's low-board diving Johnny Higgins, Providence, R. I., won the 300-yard individual medley from Tom Haynie, Michigan. Higgins' time of 3:28.7 set a new meet record.

CHICK PINS CHRISTIE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Cowboy Dude Chick, Cheyenne (Wyo.) grappler, threw Ted Christie of Sunland, Cal., here last night in the feature match of the wrestling program.

STILL NO CHAMPION

ATLANTA, Ga., April 3.—The New York Yankees came here today without Outfielder Ben Chapman, who remained at his home in Birmingham threatening to quit baseball. "Pay me or trade me," was Chapman's final offer to the Yanks. Manager Joe McCarthy said Chapman would either play with the Yanks or not at all.

MEETS CALLED OFF

Opening meets of two local high school track teams, scheduled for today, were postponed indefinitely because of cold weather and snow. Washington was to have opposed Ben Davis at the West Side oval and Southport High School was carded to invade Shortridge Field.

FARR GIVEN VERDICT

LONDON, Eng., April 3.—Although knocked down twice, Tommy Farr, who recently defeated Tommy Loughran, was awarded a contested 10-round decision over Bob Olin of New York here last night.
